BACKGROUND:

The Attorney General’s Sexual Assault Task Force (SATF) manages the Sexual Assault Examiner (SAE) and Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) Certification Commission, which performs tasks and makes recommendations to the SATF for the training, qualifications, and certification of registered nurses, physicians, and physician assistants who provide sexual assault medical forensic examinations in Oregon and receive compensation through the Sexual Assault Victims’ Emergency Medical Response Fund. The SAE/SANE Certification Commission also identifies, updates, and publicizes best practices in sexual assault examinations, performs random chart reviews to ensure compliance with standards, and takes action to suspend certification when warranted. See Oregon Administrative Rule 137-084-0500. The Sexual Assault Victims’ Emergency Medical Response Fund pays only for eligible medical and counseling services.
