BACKGROUND:

In register to vote in Oregon, you must be a citizen of the United States, a resident of Oregon, and at least age 16. If a person is not yet age 18, they will not receive a ballot until an election occurs on or after their 18th birthday. Automatic voter registration (AVR) is a process where eligible voters are automatically registered to vote when they interact with certain government agencies, most commonly as an opt-out process following interactions with the state Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) offices. In 2016, Oregon became the first state to automatically register eligible citizens who are not currently registered to vote when they apply for an original, renewal, or replacement driver license, permit, or identification card through the DMV. House Bill 2177 (2015) required the Oregon Department of Transportation to provide the Elections Division of the Secretary of State with the electronic records of each person who may be eligible to vote after certain interactions with the DMV. The law, known as "Oregon Motor Voter," was enacted by the Legislative Assembly to modernize the federal "Motor Voter Act" that required DMVs in most states to offer voter registration services, primarily by asking customers if they would like to register to vote.

Senate Bill 1577 extends automatic vote registration to applicants for admission to public institutions of higher education. The measure also requires the Department of Revenue to provide the Secretary of the State with records containing information related to voter registration.
