SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure. The statement includes a measure digest written in compliance with applicable readability standards.

Digest: The Act changes the state law that governs civil penalties imposed against a person who violates child labor laws. The Act goes into effect 91 days after session ends. (Flesch Readability Score: 60.8).

[Digest: The Act changes the state law that governs when BOLI can impose civil penalties against a person who violates child labor laws. The Act goes into effect 91 days after session ends. (Flesch Readability Score: 61.0).]

Increases civil penalties for violating child labor laws. Allows the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries to impose civil penalties against a person for violating the child labor laws when the person has paid a civil penalty to the United States Department of Labor for a violation involving the same facts. Removes the requirement for the commissioner to refund any previously assessed civil penalties against the person when the person has already paid a civil penalty to the United States Department of Labor.

Takes effect on the 91st day following adjournment sine die.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

2 Relating to unlawful employment of minors; creating new provisions; amending ORS 653.370; and
3 prescribing an effective date.

4 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

5 SECTION 1. ORS 653.370 is amended to read:

6 653.370. (1) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the Commissioner of the Bureau
7 of Labor and Industries may impose upon any person who violates ORS 653.305 to 653.370, or any
8 rule adopted by the Bureau of Labor and Industries under ORS 653.305 to 653.370 or 653.400, a civil 9 penalty not to exceed [$1,000] $10,000 for each violation.

10 (2) Notwithstanding ORS 183.482, any petition for review of an order imposing a civil penalty
11 under this section must be filed within 30 days following the date the order upon which the petition
12 is based is served.

13 (3) Except as otherwise provided in this section, civil penalties under this section shall be im-
14 posed as provided in ORS 183.745.

15 (4) All sums collected as penalties pursuant to this section shall be first applied toward re-
16 imbursement of the costs incurred in determining the violations, conducting hearings under this 17 section and assessing and collecting such penalties. The remainder, if any, of the sums collected as
18 penalties pursuant to this section shall be paid over by the commissioner to the Department of State
19 Lands for the benefit of the Common School Fund of this state. The department shall issue a receipt
20 for the money to the commissioner.
