4 “SECTION 1. ORS 243.650 is amended to read:

5 “243.650. As used in ORS 243.650 to 243.809, unless the context requires 6 otherwise:

7 “(1) ‘Appropriate bargaining unit’ means the unit designated by the Em-
8 ployment Relations Board or voluntarily recognized by the public employer
9 to be appropriate for collective bargaining. However, an appropriate bar-10 gaining unit may not include both academically licensed and unlicensed or 11 nonacademically licensed school employees. Academically licensed units may 12 include but are not limited to teachers, nurses, counselors, therapists, psy-
13 chologists, child development specialists and similar positions. This limita-14 tion does not apply to any bargaining unit certified or recognized prior to 15 June 6, 1995, or to any school district with fewer than 50 employees.

16 “(2) ‘Board’ means the Employment Relations Board.

17 “(3) ‘Certification’ means official recognition by the board that a labor 18 organization is the exclusive representative for all of the employees in the 19 appropriate bargaining unit.

20 “(4) ‘Collective bargaining’ means the performance of the mutual obli-

1 at reasonable times and confer in good faith with respect to employment re-2 lations for the purpose of negotiations concerning mandatory subjects of 3 bargaining, to meet and confer in good faith in accordance with law with 4 respect to any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of a col-5 lective bargaining agreement, and to execute written contracts incorporating 6 agreements that have been reached on behalf of the public employer and the 7 employees in the bargaining unit covered by such negotiations. The obli-
8 gation to meet and negotiate does not compel either party to agree to a 9 proposal or require the making of a concession. This subsection may not be 10 construed to prohibit a public employer and a certified or recognized repre-
11 sentative of its employees from discussing or executing written agreements 12 regarding matters other than mandatory subjects of bargaining that are not 13 prohibited by law as long as there is mutual agreement of the parties to 14 discuss these matters, which are permissive subjects of bargaining.

15 “(5) ‘Compulsory arbitration’ means the procedure whereby parties in-16 volved in a labor dispute are required by law to submit their differences to 17 a third party for a final and binding decision.

18 “(6) ‘Confidential employee’ means one who assists and acts in a confi-
19 dential capacity to a person who formulates, determines and effectuates

25 “(b) ‘Employment relations’ does not include subjects determined to be 26 permissive, nonmandatory subjects of bargaining by the Employment Re-
27 lations Board prior to June 6, 1995.

28 “(c) After June 6, 1995, ‘employment relations’ does not include subjects
29 that the Employment Relations Board determines to have a greater impact 30 on management’s prerogative than on employee wages, hours, or other terms

1 and conditions of employment.

2 “(d) ‘Employment relations’ does not include subjects that have an in-3 substantial or de minimis effect on public employee wages, hours, and other 4 terms and conditions of employment.

5 “(e) For school district bargaining:

6 “(A) ‘Employment relations’ includes class size and caseload limits in 7 schools that qualify for assistance under Title I of the federal Elementary
8 and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

9 “(B) ‘Employment relations’ excludes the school or educational calendar,
10 standards of performance or criteria for evaluation of teachers, the school
11 curriculum, reasonable dress, grooming and at-work personal conduct re-12 quirements respecting smoking, gum chewing and similar matters of personal 13 conduct, the standards and procedures for student discipline, the time be-14 tween student classes, the selection, agendas and decisions of 21st Century
15 Schools Councils established under ORS 329.704, requirements for expressing 16 milk under ORS 653.077, and any other subject proposed that is permissive 17 under paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this subsection.

18 “(f) For employee bargaining involving employees covered by ORS 243.736
19 and employees of the Department of Corrections who have direct contact 20 with adults in custody, ‘employment relations’ includes safety issues that 21 have an impact on the on-the-job safety of the employees or staffing levels 22 that have a significant impact on the on-the-job safety of the employees.

23 “(g) For all other employee bargaining except school district bargaining 24 and except as provided in paragraph (f) of this subsection, ‘employment re-25 lations’ excludes staffing levels and safety issues (except those staffing levels 26 and safety issues that have a direct and substantial effect on the on-the-job 27 safety of public employees), scheduling of services provided to the public,
28 determination of the minimum qualifications necessary for any position, cri-
29 teria for evaluation or performance appraisal, assignment of duties, workload 30 when the effect on duties is insubstantial, reasonable dress, grooming, and

1 at-work personal conduct requirements respecting smoking, gum chewing,

11 settlement of the dispute.

12 “(10) ‘Fair-share agreement’ means an agreement between the public em-
13 ployer and the recognized or certified bargaining representative of public 14 employees whereby employees who are not members of the employee organ-15 ization are required to make an in-lieu-of-dues payment to an employee or-16 ganization except as provided in ORS 243.666. Upon the filing with the board 17 of a petition by 30 percent or more of the employees in an appropriate bar-
18 gaining unit covered by such union security agreement declaring they desire 19 that the agreement be rescinded, the board shall take a secret ballot of the 20 employees in the unit and certify the results thereof to the recognized or 21 certified bargaining representative and to the public employer. Unless a 22 majority of the votes cast in an election favor the union security agreement, 23 the board shall certify deauthorization of the agreement. A petition for de-24 authorization of a union security agreement must be filed not more than 90
25 calendar days after the collective bargaining agreement is executed. Only 26 one such election may be conducted in any appropriate bargaining unit dur-
27 ing the term of a collective bargaining agreement between a public employer 28 and the recognized or certified bargaining representative.

29 “(11) ‘Final offer’ means the proposed contract language and cost sum-30 mary submitted to the mediator within seven days of the declaration of im-

1 passe.

2 “(12) ‘Labor dispute’ means any controversy concerning employment re-
3 lations or concerning the association or representation of persons in negoti-

7 “(13) ‘Labor organization’ means any organization that has as one of its 8 purposes representing employees in their employment relations with public 9 employers.

10 “(14) ‘Last best offer package’ means the offer exchanged by parties not

14 the county commission and any other board or commission empowered to 15 levy taxes.

16 “(16) ‘Managerial employee’ means an employee of the State of Oregon

18 mulate and carry out management decisions or who represents management’s 19 interest by taking or effectively recommending discretionary actions that 20 control or implement employer policy, and who has discretion in the per-21 formance of these management responsibilities beyond the routine discharge 22 of duties. A ‘managerial employee’ need not act in a supervisory capacity in 26 “(17) ‘Mediation’ means assistance by an impartial third party in recon-

30 services by the exclusive representative in negotiations and contract admin-

1 istration of all persons in an appropriate bargaining unit who are not mem-
2 bers of the organization serving as exclusive representative of the employees.

3 such action, if in connection therewith, the exercise of the authority is not 4 of a merely routine or clerical nature but requires the use of independent

22 lations Board [shall]:
