Measure: SB1583

What is the purpose of making books meant for grown ups available to kids? We prohibit books of certain nature because kids are innocent and easily swayed. We have ratings on movies to ensure the audience is mature enough to watch them. We should not advertise to kids the choices of adults by making this material readily available to them. Our priorities are incorrect. We should be passing laws to protect our children and harness their innocence-- not to manipulate or use their minds as collateral to promote our ideologies.
