

Submitter: Matthew Griffith
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Senate Committee On Education
Measure: SB1583

Let's start by stating a lot of people are in support of this bill. It appears that some of the opposition testimonies don't understand what it means because there testimonies are actually supporting the measure.

So let's break it down.

Prohibits discrimination means: to make it illegal to discriminate against textbooks, instructional materials, program materials or library books based on race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity, sexual orientation, and pregnancy), national origin, age (40 or older), disability or genetic information, that are used in the public schools of this state.
