

Submitter: Mark Booth

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HJR201

Oregon government needs to reduce its appetite for taxes, and start paying attention to results.

Absent a sound reason for this proposed tax, there needs to be the usual play on emotions: this time its for "Public Safety" which has long been a state obligation.

If public safety is not funded adequately in this state, it's a problem of policy, not existing revenue.

Vote no.