

Submitter: Kara McGarry

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1583

Educational resources shouldn't be limited, public schools are for all people, from all backgrounds. Children deserve the opportunity to explore different perspectives, schools and libraries are much better places for this than the internet. I've heard from students about recently banned books and the trend is disturbing.