

Submitter: Serena Appel

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1583

Book banning is being used across the country as a political tool to oppress and manipulate. Families should have the right to decide what their children read, not politicians. I support any measure that helps curb book banning.