Measure: HJR201

We have seen how other tax increases have been sneakily shifted over the years to be used for other things and we cannot afford to keep up this tax-happy behavior. You, our elected officials, need to prove you can manage our tax dollars with responsibility (something you have not done in years) before we the people will give more. Without a cap on property taxes, you will very quickly turn Oregon into the next California. Debt a mile high and completely unaffordable living.
