

To whom it may concern:

I strongly oppose any new property taxes. The budget of Oregon does not require any additional taxes when there is record amount of taxes being refunded each year to current over taxation. Figure out how to properly manage the finances you have, and stop crippling the people that make up this state.