

Submitter: Nancy Le

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HJR201

Nothing rushed is well thought out or planned. There's not a reasonable amount of time for taxpayers to study how this affects them so it seems clandestine. Charging taxes to benefit Portland whose actions got them into the mess they're in is unreasonable. Charge higher taxes within the city (sales tax anyone?).