

Submitter: Robin Herrera

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1583

The bill's purpose is to not discriminate against textbooks containing content that promotes diversity, which I believe is important for children and teens to be exposed to. Giving students textbooks that don't contain multiple points of view, that try to sugarcoat history, politics, and other important subjects, will do them no good. I am in support.