

I am sending this from near Tucson, Arizona. My wife and I bought a small home here and are evaluating the option of moving here permanently. Our motivation is the high taxes in Oregon and Deschutes County. I am a native Oregonian and retired to Bend only to see my property tax skyrocket. School, transportation and library bonds plus the 3% increase has made it difficult to manage on a fixed income. Arizona is looking better all the time.