

Submitter: Linda Brown

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1583

No school board or irate group of parents should be able to ban school literature/textbooks because of personal biases. If a department in a high school selects a piece of literature, I trust those teachers to choose appropriate reading content for their students as they know their students best.