I strongly oppose this as a current home owner of the millennial generation. The fact that the Portland metro area can not accurately nor responsibly spend the tax payers money for the tax payers than they should be removed from position. Why don't law makers audit the tax revenue and see were it is going. Take account for what taxes are not being spent appropriately, what programs are not relevant and re allocate those funds to something else without having to add more taxes. Taxation without representation will call for an action from the people onto the government.
