Measure: SB1583

This is simply another power grab by the state to limit, block, derail, or otherwise prevent local parents and school boards from choosing instructional material for their students BECAUSE the STATE knows better than parents and local school boards what their children should be learning. MORE, deeper and continued parental involvement at the local level is needed to improve the quality of our children's education. With Oregon at the bottom of the heap in terms of quality of public education, parents should not have their input further devalued. This bill disempowers parents and discourages local involvement by taking away local control,
