

Oregonians are already paying high Property Taxes. Added to the increased cost of food and the recent hike in our PGE bill, this would cause undue financial stress for the people you were elected to serve. It would lead to more economic strife for residents and the will be harmful to businesses in our communities.