

Submitter: Kathleen Johnson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HB4075

Housing costs are already too high for many people to own their own homes. This change to the constitution would put a greater burden on homeowners. More people would leave the state, especially young people. Our other taxes are enough to provide public safety if we would stop handcuffing our law enforcement personnel with restrictive laws.,