

Submitter: Pamela Ezell

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1550

The DOE does not need to absorb additional authority from anyone. In fact we might be better off with DOE not having quite as much authority as they currently have. They seem to be a political spin off that answers to no one except the current political party in control. They should answer in part to the parents of this country.