

Submitter: Chelsea Perritt

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure: SB1548

I believe that, as we go forth, antiquated rituals are beautiful, and some should be celebrated. The one antiquated ritual that we are done with is daylight savings. It no longer has a place, as technologies have grown farmers no longer use it. It actually messes with our natural, circadian, rhythms, making it unhealthy. Please end it.