

Submitter: Margaret Barker

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure: SB1548

It is a waste of time and money to keep changing from standard to daylight time and back again every few months. Also, it is a stress on health, especially for babies, children, the elderly or anyone with health challenges. There is always 24 hours in a day. Anyone can get up earlier if they wish to do so.