

Submitter: Carl van Warmerdam

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: HB4090

There is no such thing as a renewable energy facility. While the sun and wind are renewable the machines that extract that energy are not. They are Rebuildable energy extraction facilities. They are not clean or green or benign. They must be regulated extensively.