

Submitter: Curt Schulz
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Rules
Measure: SB1583

Local control of schools is best. The local school board is responsible to the parents because they are elected. The department of education is NOT elected, and not directly responsible to the parents. And ultimately, it is the parents who should decide what students are taught.