

Submitter: Sarah Deumling
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Rules
Measure: HB4024
HB 4024

My name is Sarah Deumling and I am a rural resident of Polk County.

I feel strongly that campaign finance limitations are not something that the campaigners themselves should make decisions about. They have too great a personal, vested interest in the subject. The voting public should decide this question via a referendum. Many European countries give each candidate an equal amount of money with which to campaign for a short period of time (like 6 weeks). There can be no contributions from the public or businesses, etc. This seems infinitely fair to me. I'm quite sure that a vast majority of Americans would agree that getting money out of politics would be a fine idea. If we have a government of the people, by the people and for the people then we, the voters, should decide this issue.

Sincerely,
Sarah Deumling