

Islanding in Portland

Rachit Nerwal, Bureau of Emergency Management Kristin Hull, Bureau of Transportation

September 29, 2025

Liquefaction Risk in Portland

1/24/2025

City of Portland ||

Sureau of Planning and Sustainability | | Geographic information Systems

Hazard Maps Liquefaction Risk

Legend

Cascadia Subduction Zone M 9.0 earthquake, Probability of Liquefaction (DOGAMI O-18-02)

Non

Low (1% - 5%)

Moderate (6% - 15%)

High (16% -30%)

--- Urban Service Boundary

The information on this magnetic district from Dity of Perford DE database. See near later in the restion of this map hat it is provided from the The Dity of Perford second scorpt may requested by the series, restains or

The Copy of herband requests manningful account on the program of the control of

THE BUREAU OF PLANNING

Page 19 and American Street Common Country Street, and page 19

Emergency Response Islands

 2022 Framework development from Regional Disaster Preparedness Organization (RDPO) and the Regional Water Providers Consortium.

 Geographic areas expected to become isolated after a Cascadia Subduction Zone (CSZ) event due to transportation system damage and natural barriers.

Portland NET Volunteers

St. Johns Islanding Example

Potential Actions

Sub-area resiliency plan Project development and cost estimates Capital project funding

For questions and additional information, please contact:

City of Portland Office of Government Relations: Evyn Mitchell, State Relations Manager 503-823-6726

evyn.mitchell@portlandoregon.gov

