

Comparison 2025 TL Characteristics to 2023 Characteristics Reported by Special Master

| Characteristic                        | Kids in TL 2023(through August) | Kids in TL 2025(throughSeptember) |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|
| Number of unique youth                | 92                                  | 82  |
| Shortest TL                           | 1                                   | 1   |
| Longest TL                            | 155                                 | 437                                       |
| Number 4 or more TL                   | 9                                   | 23  |
| Youngest                              | 6                                   | 5   |
| Oldest                                | 19                                  | 20  |
| Multnomah % of youth experiencing TL  | 33%                                 | 29%                                       |
| Lane % of youth experiencing TL       | 17%                                 | 22%                                       |
| Marion % of youth experiencing TL     | 12                                  | 11%                                       |
| Washington % of youth experiencing TL | 10                                  | 0   |

Source: Monthly TL Occasion and Setting Reports released by ODHS.

Special Master Report, 2024

Compiled by Senator Sara Gelser Blouin