LC 222, dated 01/09/2026 – Makes a broad set of changes to Oregon housing law by modifying city and county financing tools for affordable housing projects; granting additional enforcement and compliance authority to the Housing Accountability and Production Office to address local violations of housing laws; streamlining housing development approvals; clarifying landlord and tenant obligations when rental housing is destroyed or rendered uninhabitable by natural disasters; and directing state agencies to prioritize housing development when disposing of surplus state-owned property.
