I strongly oppose the proposed tax increases. Oregonians cannot afford to pay more right now. After the last several years of massive inflation, steadily rising cost of living and stagnant wages most Oregonians are barely surviving month to month. Such large scale increases will do nothing but cripple Oregon's work force.

Not only will everyone that gets a paycheck get hit, but it's hitting from all sides. We already have some of the highest DOT fees in the nation as well as fuel prices but now the very wages that pay these are under attack as well. Enough is enough.
