

I would like to say that before we keep adding more tax and taking more of our money I would like an audit and accountability of every penny that we already give to the state. We need to start spending our money wiser and make the necessary cuts to account for the assistance of 'technology', which is suppose to make things more efficient. All I can say is accountability!