The tax hikes proposed are way to high. Many small towns don't benefit from the revenue that is generated. The 100 percent payroll tax is completely unacceptable. It is hard enough for many who don't make enough or barley scraping by. One state administrative should not have unchecked power. That will lead to them not doing what is fair and good for the people, only themselves. There needs to be a limit on tax hikes so people can afford a vehicle to get to work and home. Think about everyone involved with tax hikes, not just those who have higher paying jobs and those who are minimum wage. Minimum wage we up, also groceries, utilities, rent ins, needs have all gone up as well.
