This legislation did not pass during regular session and should not be considered for a special session because it is opposed by the majority of Oregonians and should not be the subject of a special session when few people are paying attention. Many of the projects being considered will not help the horrible condition of Oregon's roads and are meant to keep public workers busy. Increasing one of the most expensive gas prices in the country will raise our cost of living.

Grocery store

deliveries use gas to run their trucks, farmers use gas to raise their crops, we use gas to get to the store. Oregon needs to stop using the ultra refined gas from california so we can reduce our cost of living.

So no to a huge cost of living increase.
