

|                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| Submitter:                        | Kurt Chiapuzio                                       |
| On Behalf Of:                     | Self   |
| Committee:                        | Joint Interim Committee On TransportationFunding |
| Measure, Appointment orTopic: | LC 2   |

With the current costs of property tax, insurance and maintenance costs. Now is not the time for another raise in gas tax etc taxes. Currently our gas prices are some of the highest in the nation. Why choke the poor and middle class with huge tax increases?? Let's think of other ways to make money for the state. Timber sales?? Hiway tolls?? Put the thinking cap on!!