

Submitter: Patrick Dunne

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Interim Committee On Transportation
Funding

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: LC 2

On all Oregon roads with soft spots, the repair should be drilling down to bedrock and installing pillars as a foundation for the road surface. The current practice of layering as asphalt on top of the slippage just causes more weight to push down the road surface with examples on Highway 18 to the coast and 101 from Lincoln City to Newport.

The bridge at Beverly Beach on Highway 101 is a good example of a success.