Motorists pay enough.

A sales tax on new car purchases has been implemented. DMV fees are increasing, thus loading us up on more fees to Oregon government.

Oregon income taxes are high enough.

Another gas tax hike is going to be another way for Oregon government to keep people back from getting ahead, let alone allowing us to catch up in our financial stresses.

Try this: manage what you have instead of asking for more, and more, and more. We citizens must balance a budget, so should Oregon government manage and balance their budgets.
