No New Road Tax:

I'm a teacher at Reynolds (East Portland). We lost 110 educators and assistant staff due to a deficit. If we can manage, so can ODOT. The increases being proposed is enough to vote:

Car title more than doubling?! That is seriously hard with single parent families with children looking for a car. And getting a job has been near impossible with minimum wage being so high. Let's not add to the fire.

Gas tax: fueling is already tough. Why are our prices as high as California? I'm born and raised Oregon and the last few years had been beyond words with Oregon going down the wrong direction. I'm a PSU grad, done business downtown and spent most weekends down there. I and many friends have moved out of Portland and have not been back.

Please help bring sanity back by voting NO.

Thank you,

Aaron Waggoner
