

No new road tax. As a native Oregon senior who lives on a fixed income, a new tax of any kind will cause a burden for me & my spouse which means we will reduce our trips whether it is to the grocery store or a stay vacation.

We must manage our money responsible and expect our state agencies to do the same.