I strongly object to raising taxes to fund ODOT. We already have some of the highest fuel taxes in the nation. They are suppose to be used for transportation. We have a high income tax, we have high property taxes, and fees have been put on EVERYTHING. I am a 69 year old man who has resided in the state for 69 years (a short stint in California in the middle there) and am appalled at how the bumper sticker of the late 60's "Don't Californicate Oregon" has come to pass. Where is all the money going?

Sincerely,
Wm. F. Michalek
