This "road tax", as currently described, is unacceptable. You are simply asking the citizens of Oregon to "just trust us" with billions of our dollars when there is no evidence that you have exercised good stewardship in the past. There is not nearly enough accountability or oversight to ensure the money is actually applied to fixing structural flaws, highway maintenance, and critical infrastructure. Much more work needs to be done in a collaborative fashion to arrive at a solution the works for all Oregonians. For these reasons, I Do Not Support a New Road Tax.
