ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

-1

- Notwithstanding ORS 283.310 and ORS 283.315, allows the State Forestry Department to control and regulate disposal and access of department vehicles.
- Clarifies the fund consists of legislative appropriations and other funds.
- Clarifies that the State Forester and an association can purchase, dispose of, or contract for goods, services, supplies, equipment and motor vehicles for the prevention, mitigation and suppression of fire on forestland, other land or both. Includes new or depreciated supplies or equipment.

BACKGROUND:

Rangeland Fire Protection Associations operate as independent associations of landowners that provide local wildfire protection. According to the Oregon Department of Forestry, the department supports these associations through administrative guidance, administrative cost reimbursement, fire suppression training, and facilitating access to federal grants and surplus firefighting equipment.
