Measure Description

The measure requires that when the Department of Human Services (DHS) contracts with a provider agency for intellectual and developmentally disabled (IDD) services by direct support professionals, DHS must adjust the payments under the contract to account for inflation. By April 30 of each year, DHS must calculate the adjustment of payments based on the U.S. City Average Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (All Items) from March of the preceding year. Any required adjustments must take effect by July 1 of the year in which DHS completes their calculation.

Fiscal Analysis

The fiscal impact of the measure is $63 million total funds and one permanent full-time position (0.75 FTE). Based on the 3.2% annual change in the consumer price index (CPI) for 2024, DHS anticipates that the total service costs will increase to $62.6 million total funds for the 2025-27 biennium, with the first increase taking effect on July 1, 2026. For the 2027-29 biennium, the service costs will increase to $330.8 million total funds. The federal medical assistance percentage (FMAP) for these payments ranges from 52% for children’s extraordinary needs to 65.8% for adult and children’s in-home supports.

Additional costs include $151,152 total funds (50% FMAP) per biennium to continue the contract with the company currently completing DHS’ rate work. DHS will need one permanent full-time Fiscal Analyst 2 position to manage implementation of the measure, track CPI rates, update provider rates in the Express Payment and Reporting System and complete any reporting requirements. The estimated cost for this position, including personal services and position-related services and supplies costs is $186,566 total funds (50% FMAP).

Relevant Dates

The measure takes effect on January 1, 2026.
