SUMMARY

Digest: The Act makes new laws about farmworker camps. (Flesch Readability Score: 82.3).

Establishes joint and several liability for landowners under certain circumstances involving the operation of farmworker camps. Creates a rebuttable presumption that a landowner did not know and could not reasonably have known of the operation of an unregistered farmworker camp on the landowner's property if the landowner produces a lease agreement expressly prohibiting such activity.

Modifies remedies that may be sought for violations of certain requirements for farmworker camps.
