House Bill 2428

Sponsored by Representatives DIEHL, RESCHKE, YUNKER; Representative MANNIX (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced. The statement includes a measure digest written in compliance with applicable readability standards.

Digest: The Act says that a public body may not keep some data about a person without the person's consent. (Flesch Readability Score: 67.3).

Provides that a public body may not collect certain information about a person's views, associations or activities without consent.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

- 2 Relating to information collected by public bodies; amending ORS 181A.250.
- 3 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:
 - SECTION 1. ORS 181A.250 is amended to read:
 - 181A.250. (1) [No law enforcement agency, as defined in ORS 181A.010, may] Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a public body, as defined in ORS 174.109, may not collect or maintain information about the political, religious or social views, associations or activities of any individual, group, association, organization, corporation, business or partnership [unless such] without the consent of the subject of the information.
 - (2) A law enforcement agency, as defined in ORS 181A.010, may collect or maintain the information described in subsection (1) of this section without the consent of the subject of the information if the information directly relates to an investigation of criminal activities, and there are reasonable grounds to suspect the subject of the information is or may be involved in criminal conduct.

14 15

1

4

5

6 7

8 9

10

11 12

13