SECTION 10a. Filing fee. (1)(a) On appeal from a justice court to the circuit court in a civil action, or in an action involving only the commission of a violation, the parties are subject to the circuit court fees described in ORS 21.135 or 21.160 when filing a notice of appeal or other first appearance in the appellate proceeding.

(b) The appellant shall either tender payment of the circuit court filing fee to the justice court, or file an application to waive or defer the filing fee with the justice court. The appellant may use the application described in ORS 21.685.

(c) The justice court shall transmit the filing fee or application to waive or defer the filing fee to the circuit court of the county in which the justice court is located at the time that the justice court submits the case record as required by section 12 of this 2025 Act. The circuit court shall rule upon the application, and may waive or defer payment of the filing fee required by ORS 21.135 or 21.160 for the reason and in the manner provided in ORS 21.680 to 21.698.

(2) When the state or any political subdivision of the state, or an officer, employee or agent thereof, appearing in a representative or other official capacity, is a party on appeal from a justice court, payment of the filing fee required by ORS 21.135 or 21.160 is subject to ORS 20.140.

SECTION 11. Jurisdiction of the matter and to decide the appeal. (1) The circuit court has jurisdiction to exercise judicial authority in the matter upon the filing of the notice of appeal.

(2) Timely filing of the notice of appeal and timely service on the adverse party is jurisdictional, and except as otherwise provided in this section, neither the justice court nor the circuit court may waive or extend the time limits for filing or serving the notice of appeal described in section 8 of this 2025 Act.

(3) Upon the timely filing of the notice of appeal, service on the adverse party and transfer of the case record to the circuit court, the appeal is deemed perfected.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3) of this section:

(a) It is not a jurisdictional defect if the appellant files the original notice of appeal with the circuit court, so long as the appellant timely served a copy of the notice of appeal on the justice court.

(b) Timely service on an adverse party is not jurisdictional if proper service did not occur due to the appellant's reliance upon an address provided by the justice court under section 6a of this 2025 Act, and the circuit court may extend the time for proper service.

(c) In a case charging a violation or a misdemeanor, timely service on the county attorney or the district attorney is not jurisdictional and the circuit court may extend the time for that service.

SECTION 12. Submission of the record. (1) The justice court shall submit the case record described in section 3 of this 2025 Act to the circuit court immediately and no later than 30 days after the date the notice of appeal was filed, or no later than 10 days if the defendant is in custody.

(2) The circuit court by order may extend the time for the justice court to submit the case record.

(3) If the justice court and the circuit court agree, the justice court may submit its case record, or make the case record available, to the circuit court in electronic form. If the circuit court does not agree to accept the justice court record in electronic form, the justice court shall submit a paper copy of the case record to the circuit court.

SECTION 13. Proceedings in the circuit court and standard of review generally. (1)(a) The circuit court may dismiss an appeal that is not properly taken or perfected, including the failure to include a claim in the notice of appeal if required by section 9 (1)(i) of this 2025 Act, except that the circuit court may not dismiss an appeal because the justice court has failed to submit the justice court case record to the circuit court.

(b) The circuit court shall not assess the merits of a claim made pursuant to section 9 (1)(i) of this 2025 Act. If, in violation of this paragraph, the circuit court dismisses an appeal based on an assessment of such a claim, and notwithstanding ORS 138.035, the appellant may appeal the dismissal.

(2) After the appeal is perfected, the matter shall be deemed pending for trial or hearing as if the case had been originally commenced in the circuit court. The circuit court shall proceed to hear and decide the matter anew, disregarding any irregularity or imperfection in matters of form that may have occurred in the justice court.

(3) The circuit court may, in furtherance of justice and upon such terms as may be just, allow a party to amend the party's pleadings in the action, provided that the amendment does not substantially change the issue tried in the justice court or introduce any new cause of action or defense.

SECTION 14. Rendering judgment; remand; notice to justice court. (1) The circuit court shall render a judgment, as defined in ORS 18.005, conclusively disposing of the appeal.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in sections 8 to 30 of this 2025 Act:

(a) If the circuit court determines that any of the terms of the justice court judgment should be reversed or modified, the circuit court shall render a judgment as if the case had been originally commenced in the circuit court, containing all the terms of the judgment and to be enforced as a judgment of the circuit court; or

(b) If the circuit court determines that none of the terms of the justice court decision should be reversed or modified, the circuit court shall render a judgment affirming the decision and remanding the case to the justice court for enforcement of the judgment.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, in its discretion and for good cause, the circuit court may render such judgment as may be proper, which may include remanding the case to the justice court for further proceedings in accordance with the decision of the circuit court.

(4) The trial court administrator of the circuit court shall provide a copy of the circuit court's judgment to the justice court:

(a) Within 40 days after the date of entry of the circuit court judgment, if no party appeals from the judgment; or

(b) Within 10 days after receipt of the appellate judgment issued by the State Court Administrator resolving the appeal, if a party appeals the circuit court judgment to the Court of Appeals.

SECTION 15. Availability of writ of review. The right of a party in a justice court to appeal under sections 8 to 30 of this 2025 Act may not be construed to prevent any party from seeking review in the circuit court under ORS 34.010 to 34.100 for errors in law appearing on the face of the judgment entered by the justice court or the proceedings connected therewith or, in a proceeding charging a violation or misdemeanor, an interlocutory order involving the constitutionality of a statute.

(Violation and Misdemeanor Cases)

SECTION 16. Appeal and cross-appeal by the defendant. (1) In a proceeding involving a violation or misdemeanor, a defendant may appeal from:

(3) A defendant may cross-appeal when the prosecution appeals an order prior to trial suppressing evidence as provided in section 17 (1)(c) of this 2025 Act. The failure to file a cross-appeal under this subsection does not waive a defendant's right to appeal a particular ruling of the justice court on appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence.

SECTION 17. Appeal by the state or county. (1) In a proceeding involving a violation or misdemeanor, the prosecution may appeal from:

(a) An order made prior to trial dismissing or setting aside one or more counts in the accusatory instrument.

SECTION 18. Proceedings in the circuit court in general in cases charging offenses. (1) On appeal of a matter in a case charging a violation or misdemeanor, the circuit court shall try the matter pursuant to the statutes that prescribe the procedure for trial of violations or misdemeanors, respectively, in the circuit court, except that the prosecution may be handled by an attorney provided by the county or other political subdivision of the state that enacted the ordinance or adopted the provision of a charter the defendant was charged with or convicted of violating.

(2) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment of conviction and sentence for a violation or misdemeanor defined by state law or by a law enacted by a county, city or other subdivision of the state, if the defendant is convicted, the circuit court may impose any sentence within the limits prescribed by state law, by ordinance of the county or other political subdivision of the state or by city charter for the violation or misdemeanor. If the circuit court determines that the defendant is guilty of a violation, the circuit court shall comply with ORS 153.018, 153.019, 153.020 and 153.021 in imposing the sentence.

SECTION 18a. Scope of review in general of order or judgment other than judgment of conviction and sentence. On appeal by the defendant or the prosecution of an order or judgment other than the judgment of conviction and sentence, except as otherwise specified by law, the circuit court may review only the order or judgment from which the appeal is taken and any issue necessary to decide the appeal, but may receive and consider evidence as necessary to decide the matter anew.

SECTION 18b. Scope of review in specific cases. (1) On appeal by a defendant of any conviction based on a plea of guilty or no contest, the circuit court shall treat the plea as though it was entered in and accepted by the circuit court. If the defendant has included a claim of legal error in the notice of appeal as required by section 9 (1)(i) of this 2025 Act, the circuit court shall sentence the defendant anew without determining whether the justice court erred.

(a) The circuit court shall proceed in the same manner as in an appeal from the original judgment or order.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, if the appeal of the amended or corrected judgment or order is filed after expiration of the time period during which the original judgment or order could have been appealed, the circuit court may review only the amended or corrected part of the judgment or order and any part of the judgment or order affected by the amendment or correction.

(5)(a) On appeal by a defendant under section 16 (2) of this 2025 Act or by the prosecution under section 17 (2) of this 2025 Act, the circuit court shall determine whether to grant relief in accordance with ORS 153.105 in the same manner as if the motion for relief had been originally filed in circuit court.

(b) The circuit court may hear evidence or admit exhibits necessary to make the determination on the matter.

SECTION 19. Circuit court proceedings on appeal in violation and misdemeanor cases. (1) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment under section 16 (1)(a) or (d) of this 2025 Act involving a misdemeanor, after the circuit court has decided the appeal, and notwithstanding whether the circuit court affirms, reverses or modifies any term of the justice court judgment, the circuit court shall render a judgment as provided in section 14 (2)(a) of this 2025 Act.

(2) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment under section 16 (1)(a) or (d) of this 2025 Act involving a violation, if the circuit court determines that no term of the justice court judgment should be reversed or modified, the circuit court shall render a judgment as provided in section 14 (2)(b) or (3) of this 2025 Act.

(3) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment or order under section 16 (1)(b) or (c) of this 2025 Act, after the circuit court has decided the appeal, the circuit court shall render a judgment disposing of as much of the case as was tried before the circuit court.

(4)(a) On appeal by the defendant under section 16 (2) of this 2025 Act, if the circuit court determines that relief should be granted, the circuit court shall vacate the judgment and:

(A) Remand the case to the justice court for further proceedings; or

(B) Retain the case in the circuit court for further proceedings, if the justice court has adopted a rule described in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) A justice court, with agreement of the presiding judge of the circuit court of the county in which the justice court is located, may adopt a rule allowing a case described in paragraph (a) of this subsection to remain in circuit court for further proceedings after the justice court judgment is vacated.

(5) On appeal by the prosecution under section 17 (1)(a) to (d) of this 2025 Act, after the circuit court has decided the matter appealed, and notwithstanding section 18a of this 2025 Act, at the request of either party, the circuit court shall take jurisdiction of the case, try the case and render a judgment described in section 14 (2)(a) of this 2025 Act. If neither party requests the circuit court to try the remainder of the case, the circuit court shall render a judgment disposing of as much of the case as was tried before the circuit court and remanding the case to the justice court for further proceedings.

(6) On appeal by the prosecution under section 17 (1)(e) to (g) of this 2025 Act, the circuit court shall render a judgment reflecting its decision and remanding the case to the justice court.

(7) On appeal by the prosecution under section 17 (2) of this 2025 Act, if the circuit court determines that relief should not be granted, the circuit court shall render a judgment vacating the justice court's order granting relief and remanding the case to the justice court for further proceedings.

(b) A surety for an undertaking on appeal must have the qualifications established by ORCP 82.

(2) The appellant shall file an undertaking stating that the appellant will pay all costs and disbursements that may be awarded against the appellant on appeal. The appellant shall file the undertaking with the justice court within five days after filing the notice of appeal. The justice court or the circuit court for good cause may extend the time to file the undertaking.

(3) In order to stay the enforcement of a money judgment on appeal, the appellant shall include in the undertaking a promise to pay the justice court judgment to the extent that the circuit court affirms the judgment.

(b) The objection to the sufficiency of an undertaking must be filed as provided in ORCP 82. Notwithstanding ORCP 82 F, the respondent must file the objection within 14 days after the date on which a copy of the undertaking is served on the respondent. (5)(a) If a tenant on appeal of a judgment for possession of real property files an undertaking to stay enforcement of the judgment during the appeal, absent a bond or sufficient surety, the tenant shall support the undertaking by promising to deposit with the justice court by a date certain each month the fair market rental value of the real property. The justice court may determine the fair market rental value of the real property based on the written or oral rental agreement between the parties or other evidence of the monthly rent amount due or in effect at the time the court's determination is made.

(b) The tenant must deposit the fair market value of the property with the justice court each month by the date specified in the undertaking or as ordered by the justice court. If the tenant fails to timely deposit the monthly amount, the landlord shall be entitled to enforce the justice court judgment notwithstanding the pendency of the appeal to the circuit court. Upon recall, the execution must be returned, and all property taken pursuant to the execution that has not been sold must be released.

SECTION 28. Enforcement of judgment in contract action notwithstanding appeal. When a judgment has been given for money in an action upon a contract to pay money, notwithstanding an appeal and undertaking for the stay of proceedings, the respondent may enforce the judgment if, within five days from the date the notice of appeal is filed, the respondent files with the justice court an undertaking, with one or more sureties, to the effect that if the judgment is changed or modified on appeal, the respondent will make such restitution as the circuit court may direct. The undertaking must be filed with the justice court after at least two days' notice to the other party.

SECTION 28a. Appeals from actions for the recovery of real property. (1) On appeal from a judgment conclusively determining an action for the recovery of real property, notwithstanding section 12 of this 2025 Act, the justice court shall forward the notice of appeal and the case record to the circuit court within 10 days of the date the appellant files the notice of appeal with the justice court.

(2) Notwithstanding ORS 105.137, the circuit court shall proceed to set the matter for trial, without scheduling a first appearance, as follows:

[A party entitled to appeal may, within 10 days after the entry of the judgment against the party, appeal to the circuit court for the county in which the justice court is located. If final judgment is rendered against the party appealing in the appellate court, that party shall pay, in addition to the judgment, an attorney's fee to the other party in the sum of $10. SECTION 40. Filing and serving notice of appeal. (1) The appellant shall:

(a) File written notice of appeal with the municipal court from which the appeal is taken with proof of service of a copy on the adverse party, or an acknowledgment of service signed by the adverse party; and

(b) Serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the adverse party or, if the adverse party is represented by an attorney, the party's attorney.

(2) If the defendant is the appellant:

(a) The defendant shall serve the city attorney if the case has been brought in the city's name and the defendant did not serve the city attorney under subsection (1) of this section.

(b) The defendant shall serve the district attorney if the case has been brought in the state's name and the defendant did not serve the district attorney under subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 40a. Filing fee. (1)(a) On appeal from a municipal court to the circuit court in an action involving only the commission of a violation, the parties are subject to the circuit court fees described in ORS 21.135 when filing a notice of appeal or other first appearance in the appellate proceeding.

(b) The appellant shall either tender payment of the circuit court filing fee to the municipal court, or file an application to waive or defer the filing fee with the municipal court. The appellant may use the application described in ORS 21.685.

(c) The municipal court shall transmit the filing fee or application to waive or defer the filing fee to the circuit court of the county in which the municipal court is located at the time that the municipal court submits the case record as required in section 41a of this 2025 Act. The circuit court shall rule upon the application, and may waive or defer payment of the filing fee required by ORS 21.135 for the reason and in the manner provided in ORS 21.680 to 21.698.

(2) When the state or any political subdivision of the state, or an officer, employee or agent thereof, appearing in a representative or other official capacity, is a party on appeal from a municipal court, payment of the filing fee required by ORS 21.135 is subject to ORS 20.140.

SECTION 41. Jurisdiction of the matter and to decide the appeal. (1) The circuit court has jurisdiction to exercise judicial authority in the matter upon the filing of the notice of appeal.

(2) Timely filing of the notice of appeal and timely service on the adverse party is jurisdictional, and except as otherwise provided in this section, neither the municipal court nor the circuit court may waive or extend the time limits for filing or serving the notice of appeal described in section 40 of this 2025 Act.

(3) Upon the timely filing of the notice of appeal, service of the adverse party and transfer of the case record to the circuit court, the appeal is deemed perfected.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3) of this section:

(a) It is not a jurisdictional defect if the appellant files the original notice of appeal with the circuit court, so long as the appellant timely served a copy of the notice of appeal on the municipal court.

(b) Timely service on an adverse party is not jurisdictional if proper service did not occur due to the appellant's reliance upon an address provided by the municipal court under section 37a of this 2025 Act, and the circuit court may extend the time for proper service.

(c) Timely service on the city attorney or the district attorney is not jurisdictional and the circuit court may extend the time for that service.

SECTION 41a. Submission of the record. (1) The municipal court shall submit the case record described in ORS 221.352 to the circuit court immediately and no later than 30 days after the date the notice of appeal was filed, or 10 days if the defendant is in custody.

(2) The circuit court by order may extend the time for the municipal court to submit the case record.

(3) If the municipal court and the circuit court agree, the municipal court may submit its case record, or make the case record available, to the circuit court in electronic form. If the circuit court does not agree to accept the municipal court record in electronic form, the municipal court shall submit a paper copy of the case record to the circuit court.

SECTION 42. Proceedings in the circuit court and standard of review generally. (1)(a) The circuit court may dismiss an appeal that is not properly taken or perfected, including the failure to include a claim in the notice of appeal if required by section 39a (1)(i) of this 2025 Act, except that the circuit court may not dismiss an appeal because the municipal court has failed to submit the municipal court case record to the circuit court.

(b) The circuit court shall not assess the merits of a claim made pursuant to section 39a (1)(i) of this 2025 Act. If, in violation of this paragraph, the circuit court dismisses an appeal based on an assessment of such a claim, and notwithstanding ORS 138.035, the appellant may appeal the dismissal.

(2) After the appeal is perfected, the matter shall be deemed pending for trial or hearing as if the case had been originally commenced in the circuit court. The circuit court shall proceed to hear and decide the matter anew, disregarding any irregularity or imperfection in matters of form that may have occurred in the municipal court.

(3) The circuit court may, in furtherance of justice and upon such terms as may be just, allow a party to amend the party's pleadings in the action, provided that the amendment does not substantially change the issue tried in the municipal court or introduce any new cause of action or defense.

SECTION 42a. Rendering judgment; remand; notice to municipal court. (1) The circuit court shall render a judgment as defined in ORS 18.005 conclusively disposing of the appeal.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act:

(a) If the circuit court determines that any of the terms of the municipal court judgment should be reversed or modified, the circuit court shall render a judgment as if the case had been originally commenced in the circuit court, containing all the terms of the judgment and to be enforced as a judgment of the circuit court; or

(b) If the circuit court determines that none of the terms of the municipal court decision should be reversed or modified, the circuit court shall render a judgment affirming the decision and remanding the case to the municipal court for enforcement of the judgment.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, in its discretion and for good cause, the circuit court may render such judgment as may be proper, which may include remanding the case to the municipal court for further proceedings in accordance with the decision of the circuit court.

(4) The trial court administrator of the circuit court shall provide a copy of the circuit court's judgment to the municipal court:

(a) Within 40 days after the date of entry of the circuit court judgment, if no party appeals from the judgment; or

(b) Within 10 days after receipt of the appellate judgment issued by the appellate court resolving the appeal, if a party appeals the circuit court judgment.

(5) If enforcement of the municipal court's judgment was stayed pending disposition of an appeal to circuit court, the stay is automatically vacated when the trial court administrator provides a copy of the circuit court judgment to the municipal court under subsection (4) of this section.

SECTION 43. Availability of writ of review. The right of a party in a municipal court to appeal under sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act may not be construed to prevent any party from seeking review in the circuit court under ORS 34.010 to 34.100 for errors in law appearing on the face of the judgment entered by the municipal court or the proceedings connected therewith or, in a proceeding charging a violation or misdemeanor, an interlocutory order involving the constitutionality of a statute.

SECTION 43a. Appeal and cross-appeal by the defendant. (1) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, in a proceeding involving a violation or misdemeanor, a defendant may appeal from:

(a) A judgment convicting the defendant of one or more charges and imposing sentence, regardless of the type of sentence imposed.

(b) A judgment ordering payment of restitution but not specifying the amount of restitution, or a supplemental judgment awarding restitution.

(c) A judgment or order imposing or executing a sentence upon revocation of probation or sentence suspension.

(d) A judgment or order that is an amended or corrected version of a judgment or order described in paragraphs (a) to (c) of this subsection.

(2) A defendant may appeal as provided in section 50 (3) of this 2025 Act.

(3) In a proceeding involving a violation, the defendant may appeal an order denying a motion for relief from default under ORS 153.105.

(4) A defendant may cross-appeal when the prosecution appeals an order prior to trial suppressing evidence as provided in section 44 (2)(c) of this 2025 Act. The failure to file a cross-appeal under this subsection does not waive a defendant's right to assign error to a particular ruling of the municipal court on appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence.

(5) Whenever a person is convicted in the municipal court of any city of an offense defined and made punishable by a city charter or ordinance, that person has the same right of appeal to the circuit court as for a conviction of an offense defined by state law.

(6) In all cases involving the constitutionality of the charter provision or ordinance under which the conviction was obtained as indicated in subsection (5) of this section, such person shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court in the manner provided in subsection (5) of this section, regardless of any charter provision or ordinance prohibiting appeals from the municipal court because of the amount of the penalty or otherwise. An appeal may likewise be taken in such cases from the judgment or final order of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in the same manner as other appeals are taken from the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in other criminal cases. Where the right of appeal in such cases depends on there being involved an issue as to the constitutionality of the charter provision or ordinance, the decision of the appellate court shall be upon such constitutional issue only.

SECTION 44. Appeal by the state or city. (1)(a) The state or a city may appeal as provided in subsection (2) of this section in a proceeding involving a violation or misdemeanor defined by state law, in which event the appeal is in the name of the state.

(b) The city may appeal as provided in subsection (2) of this section in a proceeding involving a violation or misdemeanor defined by city charter or ordinance, in which event the appeal is in the name of the city.

(2) In a proceeding involving a violation or misdemeanor, the prosecution may appeal from:

(a) An order made prior to trial dismissing or setting aside one or more counts in the accusatory instrument.

(b) An order allowing a demurrer.

(c) An order made prior to trial suppressing evidence.

(d) An order made prior to trial for the return or restoration of things seized.

(e) An order arresting the judgment.

(f) An order made after a guilty finding dismissing or setting aside one or more counts in the accusatory instrument.

(g) An order granting a new trial.

(3) In a proceeding involving a violation, the prosecution may appeal an order granting a defendant's motion for relief from default under ORS 153.105.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, the prosecution may not appeal the dismissal of a violation by reason of a police officer's failure to appear at the trial on the matter if the police officer was timely provided with notice of the trial date.

SECTION 44a. Proceedings in the circuit court in general. Except as provided in section 50 of this 2025 Act:

(1) On appeal of a matter in a case charging a violation or misdemeanor, the circuit court shall try the matter pursuant to the statutes that prescribe the procedure for trial of violations or misdemeanors, respectively, in the circuit court, except that the prosecution may be handled by an attorney provided by the city that enacted the ordinance or adopted the provision of a charter the defendant was convicted of violating.

(2) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment of conviction and sentence for a violation or misdemeanor defined by state law or by a law enacted by a city, if the defendant is convicted, the circuit court may impose any sentence within the limits prescribed by state law or by charter or ordinance of the city. If the circuit court determines that the defendant is guilty of a violation, the circuit court shall comply with ORS 153.018, 153.019, 153.020 and 153.021 in imposing the sentence.

SECTION 45. Scope of review in general of order or judgment other than judgment of conviction and sentence. On appeal by the defendant or the prosecution of an order or judgment other than the judgment of conviction and sentence, except as otherwise specified by law, the circuit court may review only the order or judgment from which the appeal is taken and any issue necessary to decide the appeal, but may receive and consider evidence as necessary to decide the matter anew.

SECTION 46. Scope of review in specific cases. (1) On appeal by a defendant of any conviction based on a plea of guilty or no contest, the circuit court shall treat the plea as though it was entered in and accepted by the circuit court. If the defendant has included a claim of legal error in the notice of appeal as required by section 39a (1)(i) of this 2025 Act, the circuit court shall sentence the defendant anew without determining whether the municipal court erred.

(2) At any sentencing proceeding in the circuit court, both parties shall be bound by any sentencing agreement that the parties entered into in the municipal court.

(3) On appeal by a defendant under section 43a (1)(b) of this 2025 Act, the circuit court shall sentence the defendant anew.

(4) On appeal by a defendant under section 43a (1)(d) of this 2025 Act:

(a) The circuit court shall proceed in the same manner as in an appeal from the original judgment or order.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, if the appeal of the amended or corrected judgment or order is filed after expiration of the time period during which the original judgment or order could have been appealed, the circuit court may review only the amended or corrected part of the judgment or order and any part of the judgment or order affected by the amendment or correction.

(5)(a) On appeal by a defendant under section 43a (3) of this 2025 Act, or by the prosecution under section 44 (3) of this 2025 Act, the circuit court shall determine whether to grant relief in accordance with ORS 153.105 in the same manner as if the motion for relief had been originally filed in circuit court.

(b) The circuit court may hear evidence or admit exhibits necessary to make the determination on the matter.

SECTION 47. Circuit court proceedings in specific appeals. (1) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment under section 43a (1)(a) or (d) of this 2025 Act involving a misdemeanor, after the circuit court has decided the appeal, and notwithstanding whether the circuit court affirms, reverses or modifies any term of the municipal court judgment, the circuit court shall render a judgment as provided in section 42a (2)(a) of this 2025 Act.

(2) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment under section 43a (1)(a) or (d) of this 2025 Act involving a violation, if the circuit court determines that no term of the municipal court judgment should be reversed or modified, the circuit court shall render a judgment as provided in section 42a (2)(b) or (3) of this 2025 Act.

(3) On appeal by the defendant of a judgment or order under section 43a (1)(b) or (c) of this 2025 Act, after the circuit court has decided the appeal, the circuit court shall render a judgment disposing of as much of the case as was tried before the circuit court.

(4)(a) On appeal by the defendant under section 43a (3) of this 2025 Act, if the circuit court determines that relief should be granted, the circuit court shall vacate the judgment and:

(A) Remand the case to the municipal court for further proceedings; or

(B) Retain the case in the circuit court for further proceedings, if the municipal court has adopted a rule described in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) A municipal court, with agreement of the presiding judge of the circuit court of the county in which the municipal court is located, may adopt a rule allowing a case described in paragraph (a) of this subsection to remain in circuit court for further proceedings after the municipal court judgment is vacated.

(5) On appeal by the prosecution under section 44 (2)(a) to (d) of this 2025 Act, after the circuit court has decided the matter appealed, and notwithstanding section 45 of this 2025 Act, at the request of either party, the circuit court shall take jurisdiction of the case, try the case and render a judgment described in section 42a (2)(a) of this 2025 Act. If neither party requests the circuit court to try the remainder of the case, the circuit court shall render a judgment disposing of as much of the case as was tried before the circuit court and remanding the case to the municipal court for further proceedings.

(6) On appeal by the prosecution under section 44 (2)(e) to (g) of this 2025 Act, the circuit court shall render a judgment reflecting its decision and remanding the case to the municipal court.

(7) On appeal by the prosecution under section 44 (3) of this 2025 Act, if the circuit court determines that relief should not be granted, the circuit court shall render a judgment vacating the municipal court's order granting relief and remanding the case to the municipal court for further proceedings.

NOTE: Section 48 was deleted. Subsequent sections were not renumbered.

SECTION 49. Stay of enforcement of judgment. (1) A defendant filing notice of appeal from a judgment of conviction and sentence of a misdemeanor described in this subsection does not stay enforcement of the judgment unless the defendant:

(a) If sentenced to confinement, executes a release agreement or makes a security release deposit as provided in ORS 135.230 to 135.290; or

(b) On conviction of a traffic crime as defined in ORS 801.545, gives the security required by ORS 810.300 to 810.330 as an undertaking on appeal.

(2) A defendant filing notice of appeal from a judgment involving a violation does not automatically stay enforcement of the judgment.

(3) Nothing in this section is intended to affect the authority of the municipal court or circuit court to stay enforcement of the judgment under ORS 19.350, 138.285 or 138.295 or any other authority.

SECTION 50. Validity of charter or ordinance provision determined before merits. (1) Whenever a defendant is charged with violating a provision of a city charter or ordinance and the defendant challenges the validity of the charter or ordinance provision, a municipal judge shall determine such issue and enter an order thereon before deciding the case on its merits.

(2) If the municipal judge declares the charter or ordinance provision invalid, the city may appeal from the municipal court to the circuit court. If the circuit court affirms the municipal court's determination, the city may appeal to the Court of Appeals as provided in ORS 138.057 in a proceeding involving a violation, or as provided in ORS 138.010 to 138.310 in a proceeding involving a misdemeanor. If a city so appeals, while the appellate decision is pending, the defendant shall be released, with or without bond, for reappearance at the discretion of the trial court until such time as the case is remanded.

(3) If the municipal court declares the charter or ordinance provision valid, the municipal court may proceed to try the matter. If the municipal court convicts the defendant of violating the charter or ordinance provision, the defendant may appeal the judgment of conviction as provided in section 51 of this 2025 Act.

SECTION 51. Appeal from circuit court to Court of Appeals; limitations. (1)(a) The state or a city may appeal an order or judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals:

(A) In a proceeding involving a violation, as provided in ORS 138.057.

(B) In a proceeding involving a misdemeanor, as provided in ORS 138.010 to 138.310.

(b) In any case in which only a violation or violations are charged, the state may not appeal from an order dismissing the case that is entered by reason of a police officer's failure to appear at the trial on the matter if the police officer was timely provided with notice of the trial date.

(2)(a) If the order or judgment of the circuit court being appealed arises from a violation or misdemeanor defined by state law or a traffic crime as defined in ORS 801.545, the defendant may appeal the order or judgment to the Court of Appeals:

(A) In a proceeding involving a violation, as provided in ORS 138.057.

(B) In a proceeding involving a misdemeanor, as provided in ORS 138.010 to 138.310.

(b) The defendant may appeal an order or judgment arising from a violation or misdemeanor defined by city charter or ordinance as provided in section 43a (5) and (6) of this 2025 Act.

(3)(a) The filing of a notice of an appeal from a judgment involving a violation does not act to automatically stay the judgment.

(b) Nothing in this section is intended to affect the authority of the municipal court or circuit court to stay enforcement of the judgment under ORS 19.350, 138.285 or 138.295 or any other authority.
