(b) The individual was married to the parent who gave birth to the child and the child is born within 300 days after the marriage is terminated by death, annulment or dissolution or after entry of a judgment of separation.

(2) The parentage of a child that is established under subsection (1)(a) of this section may be challenged by the parent who gave birth to the child or by the child's presumed parent. The parentage may not be challenged by any other person as long as the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent are cohabiting, unless the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent both consent to the challenge.

(3)(a) An action or proceeding to challenge parentage of a child established under this section must be initiated before the child attains 18 years of age unless the child initiates the action or proceeding.

(b) If the court finds that it is just and equitable, giving consideration to the interests of the parties and the child, the court shall admit evidence offered to rebut the presumption.

(c) A presumption of parentage cannot be rebutted after the child attains four years of age unless the court determines:

(A) The presumed parent is not a genetic parent, never resided with the child and never held the child out as the presumed parent's child;

(B) The child has more than one presumed parent; or

(C) The presumption arose due to fraud, duress or a material mistake of fact.

(d) The four-year statute of limitation under paragraph (c) of this subsection does not apply if the presumed parent's parentage of the child is being challenged:

(A) Under section 28 of this 2025 Act based on the presumed parent having committed an act constituting rape, as defined in section 28 of this 2025 Act, that resulted in the child's conception; or

(B) Under section 59 (2) of this 2025 Act, if the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement.

(4) Except as provided in section 28 or 59 of this 2025 Act, if the parent who gave birth to a child is the only other person with a claim to parentage of the child in a proceeding to adjudicate a presumed parent's parentage of the child, the court shall:

(a) Adjudicate the presumed parent to be a parent of the child if:

(A) No party to the proceeding challenges the presumed parent's parentage of the child; or

(A) The presumed parent is not identified under section 45 of this 2025 Act as a genetic parent of the child and the presumed parent or the parent who gave birth to the child challenges the presumed parent's parentage of the child; or

(B) If another person, other than the presumed parent or the parent who gave birth to the child, asserts a claim to parentage of the child.

(5) The court may enter a judgment under this section before the child's birth but shall stay enforcement of the judgment until the birth of the child and shall order one or more of the parties to notify the court of the child's birth.

SECTION 7. Section 6 of this 2025 Act is amended to read:

Sec. 6. (1) An individual is rebuttably presumed to be the parent of a child if, unless the child was conceived by assisted reproduction under a gestational surrogacy agreement:

(c) The individual is not married to the parent who gave birth to the child at the time of the child's birth but the individual and the parent who gave birth intend to be married and the individual agrees to be and is named as a parent of the child on the child's record of live birth.

(2) The parentage of a child that is established under subsection (1)(a) of this section may be challenged by the parent who gave birth to the child or by the child's presumed parent. The parentage may not be challenged by any other person as long as the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent are cohabiting, unless the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent both consent to the challenge.

(3)(a) An action or proceeding to challenge parentage of a child established under this section must be initiated before the child attains 18 years of age unless the child initiates the action or proceeding.

(b) If the court finds that it is just and equitable, giving consideration to the interests of the parties and the child, the court shall admit evidence offered to rebut the presumption.

(c) A presumption of parentage cannot be rebutted after the child attains four years of age unless the court determines:

(A) The presumed parent is not a genetic parent, never resided with the child and never held the child out as the presumed parent's child;

(B) The child has more than one presumed parent;

(C) The presumption arose under subsection (1)(c) of this section but the presumed parent did not marry the person who gave birth to the child; or

[(C)] (D) The presumption arose due to fraud, duress or a material mistake of fact.

(d) The four-year statute of limitation under paragraph (c) of this subsection does not apply if the presumed parent's parentage of the child is being challenged:

(A) Under section 28 of this 2025 Act based on the presumed parent having committed an act constituting rape, as defined in section 28 of this 2025 Act, that resulted in the child's conception; or

(B) Under section 59 (2) of this 2025 Act, if the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement.

(4) Except as provided in section 28 or 59 of this 2025 Act, if the parent who gave birth to a child is the only other person with a claim to parentage of the child in a proceeding to adjudicate a presumed parent's parentage of the child, the court shall:

(a) Adjudicate the presumed parent to be a parent of the child if:

(A) No party to the proceeding challenges the presumed parent's parentage of the child; or

(B) The presumed parent is identified under section 45 of this 2025 Act as a genetic parent of the child and that identification is not successfully challenged under section 45 of this 2025 Act; or

(b) Adjudicate the parentage of the child in the best interests of the child based on the factors under section 54 of this 2025 Act if:

(A) The presumed parent is not identified under section 45 of this 2025 Act as a genetic parent of the child and the presumed parent or the parent who gave birth to the child challenges the presumed parent's parentage of the child; or

(B) If another person, other than the presumed parent or the parent who gave birth to the child, asserts a claim to parentage of the child.

(5) The court may enter a judgment under this section before the child's birth but shall stay enforcement of the judgment until the birth of the child and shall order one or more of the parties to notify the court of the child's birth.

SECTION 8. ORS 109.070 is amended to read:

109.070. [(1) The parentage of a person is rebuttably presumed if:]

[(2) The parentage of a child established under subsection (1)(a) or (4)(a) of this section may be challenged in an action or proceeding by either spouse. The parentage may not be challenged by a person other than a spouse as long as the spouses are married and are cohabiting, unless both spouses consent to the challenge.]

[(3) If the court finds that it is just and equitable, giving consideration to the interests of the parties and the child, the court shall admit evidence offered to rebut the presumption of parentage in subsection (1) of this section.]

[(4) The paternity of a person may be established by a voluntary acknowledgment as follows:]

[(c)] (b) By establishment of [paternity] parentage through a voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage in another state.

(b) A statement of the parents' rights and responsibilities including any rights afforded to a parent who is under 18 years of age;

(c) A statement of the alternatives to and consequences of signing the acknowledgment;

(d) Lines for the Social Security numbers and addresses of the parents;

(e) If the acknowledgment is witnessed by staff in the health care facility, a statement that the witness read to the parties the rights, responsibilities, alternatives and consequences listed on the acknowledgment prior to signing the acknowledgment;

(f) A statement that the parties to the acknowledgment understand that the acknowledgment is the equivalent of an adjudication of parentage of the child and that a challenge to the acknowledgment is permitted only under limited circumstances; and

(g) A place for the signatures of the parent who gave birth to the child and the individual whose parentage is being acknowledged to be:

(A) Notarized; or

(B) Witnessed by a staff member of the health facility where the child was born if witnessed within five days following the child's birth.

(4) Unless rescinded under subsection (5) of this section or successfully challenged under subsection (6) of this section an acknowledgment of parentage that complies with this section and ORS 432.098 and has become effective as described in ORS 432.098 is equivalent to an adjudication of parentage of the child and confers on the acknowledged parent all rights and duties of a parent.

(5)(a) A party to a voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage may rescind the acknowledgment by filing with the state registrar a written rescission, signed by the party and notarized.

(b) The rescission must be filed with the state registrar within the earlier of:

(B) The date of the first hearing before the court in a proceeding relating to the child, including a proceeding to establish a support order, in which the party wishing to rescind the acknowledgment is also a party. [For the purposes of this subparagraph, the date of a proceeding is the date on which an order is entered in the proceeding.]

[(b) To rescind the acknowledgment, the party shall sign and file with the State Registrar of the Center for Health Statistics a written document declaring the rescission.]

(6)(a) A signed voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage filed in this state may be challenged and set aside in circuit court at any time after the 60-day period referred to in subsection (5) of this section on the basis of fraud, duress or a material mistake of fact.

(b) The challenge may be brought by:

(A) A party to the acknowledgment;

(B) The child named in the acknowledgment; or

(C) The Department of Human Services or the administrator, as defined in ORS 25.010, if the child named in the acknowledgment is in the care and custody of the department under ORS chapter 419B and the department or the administrator reasonably believes that the acknowledgment was signed because of fraud, duress or a material mistake of fact.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection, an acknowledgment of parentage described in subsection (1)(a)(B) of this section may be challenged by the parent who gave birth to the child or by the child's acknowledged parent. The parentage may not be challenged by any other person as long as the parent who gave birth to the child and the acknowledged parent are married and cohabiting, unless the parent who gave birth to the child and the acknowledged parent both consent to the challenge.

[(c)] (d) The challenge shall be initiated by filing a petition with the circuit court. Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, the challenge shall be conducted pursuant to the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure.

(e) Every party to the acknowledgment must be made a party to the proceeding.

[(d)] (g) The party bringing the challenge has the burden of proof.

[(e)] (h) Legal responsibilities arising from the acknowledgment, including child support obligations, may not be suspended during the challenge, except for good cause.

[(f)] (i) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the acknowledgment was signed because of fraud, duress or material mistake of fact, the court shall set aside the acknowledgment unless, giving consideration to the interests of the parties and the child, the court finds that setting aside the acknowledgment would be substantially inequitable.

(7) [Within one year after a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity form is filed in this state and if blood tests, as defined in ORS 109.251, have not been completed,] A party to [the acknowledgment] a voluntary acknowledgment of parentage, or the department if the child named in the acknowledgment is in the care and custody of the department under ORS chapter 419B, may apply to the administrator for an order for [blood tests] genetic testing in accordance with ORS 25.554 if:

[(b)] (c) Notwithstanding any provision of subsection [(4)(a)] (1)(a) or (b) of this section or ORS 432.098 to the contrary, an acknowledgment does not establish parentage and is void if:

(A) The acknowledgment is signed by a party described in paragraph (a) of this subsection[and filed with the State Registrar of the Center for Health Statistics does not establish paternity and is void.]; or

(B) The acknowledgment is signed under the circumstances described in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(B) The child named in the acknowledgment and, if applicable, the denial; or

(C) The Department of Human Services or the administrator, as defined in ORS 25.010, if the child named in the acknowledgment and, if applicable, the denial is in the care and custody of the department under ORS chapter 419B and the department or the administrator reasonably believes that the acknowledgment or denial was signed because of fraud, duress or a material mistake of fact.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection, an acknowledgment of parentage described in subsection (1)(a)(B) of this section may be challenged by the parent who gave birth to the child or by the child's acknowledged parent. The parentage may not be challenged by any other person as long as the parent who gave birth to the child and the acknowledged parent are married and cohabiting, unless the parent who gave birth to the child and the acknowledged parent both consent to the challenge.

(d) The challenge shall be initiated by filing a petition with the circuit court. Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, the challenge shall be conducted pursuant to the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure.

(e) Every party to the acknowledgment and, if applicable, the denial must be made a party to the proceeding.

(f) By signing an acknowledgment of parentage or denial of parentage, a party to the acknowledgment or denial submits to the personal jurisdiction in this state in a proceeding to challenge the acknowledgment or denial, effective on the filing of the acknowledgment or denial with the state registrar.

(g) The party bringing the challenge has the burden of proof.

(h) Legal responsibilities arising from the acknowledgment, including child support obligations, may not be suspended during the challenge, except for good cause.

(i) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the acknowledgment or denial was signed because of fraud, duress or material mistake of fact, the court shall set aside the acknowledgment and, if applicable, the denial unless, giving consideration to the interests of the parties and the child, the court finds that setting aside the acknowledgment or denial would be substantially inequitable.

[(7)] (8) A party to a voluntary acknowledgment of parentage or denial of parentage, or the department if the child named in the acknowledgment and, if applicable, the denial is in the care and custody of the department under ORS chapter 419B, may apply to the administrator for an order for genetic testing in accordance with ORS 25.554 if:

(a) The application is made within one year after the acknowledgment or denial becomes effective, as described in ORS 432.098;

(b) Genetic testing has not previously been completed; and

(c) The administrator is not prohibited under ORS 25.554 (9) from reopening the issue of parentage and ordering genetic testing.

[(8)(a)] (9)(a) A voluntary acknowledgment of parentage is not valid if, before the party signed the acknowledgment:

(A) The party signed a consent to the adoption of the child by another individual;

(B) The party signed a document relinquishing the child to a child-caring agency as defined in ORS 418.205;

(C) The party's parental rights were terminated by a court; or

(D) The party was adjudicated not to be the parent of the child.

(b) A voluntary acknowledgment of parentage and, if applicable, denial of parentage is not valid if, at the time the acknowledgment or denial is signed[,]:

(A) An individual other than the individual seeking to establish parentage or the individual seeking to deny parentage is the presumed parent of the child; or

(B) An individual other than the parent who gave or will give birth to the child or the individual seeking to establish parentage, is the child's [presumed parent,] acknowledged parent, adjudicated parent or intended parent, including an intended parent of the child under a surrogacy agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section or ORS 432.098 to the contrary, an acknowledgment or denial does not establish or disestablish parentage and is void if:

(A) The acknowledgment is signed by a party described in paragraph (a) of this subsection; or

(B) The acknowledgment or denial is signed under the circumstances described in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

[(9)] (10) An unchallenged acknowledgment of parentage may not be ratified by a court or an administrative agency.

SECTION 10. ORS 109.072 is amended to read:

109.072. (1) As used in this section:

[(a) "Blood tests" has the meaning given that term in ORS 109.251.]

[(b)(A)] (a)(A) "Parentage judgment" means a judgment or administrative order that:

(i) Expressly or by inference determines the parentage of a child, or that imposes a child support obligation based on the parentage of a child; and

(ii) Resulted from a proceeding in which [blood tests were] genetic testing was not performed and the issue of parentage was not challenged.

(B) "Parentage judgment" does not include a judgment or administrative order that determines [paternity or] parentage of a child conceived by assisted reproduction [as defined in ORS 109.239].

[(c)] (b) "Petition" means a petition or motion filed under this section.

[(d)] (c) "Petitioner" means the person filing a petition or motion under this section.

(2)(a) The following may file in circuit court a petition to vacate or set aside the parentage determination of a parentage judgment, including any child support obligations established in the parentage judgment, and for a judgment of nonparentage:

(A) A party to the parentage judgment.

(B) The Department of Human Services if the child is in the care and custody of the Department of Human Services under ORS chapter 419B.

(C) The Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice if the child support rights of the child or of one of the parties to the parentage judgment have been assigned to the state.

(b) The petitioner may file the petition in the circuit court proceeding in which the parentage judgment was entered, in a related proceeding or in a separate action. The petitioner shall attach a copy of the parentage judgment to the petition.

(c) If the ground for the petition is that the parentage determination was obtained by or was the result of mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect, the petitioner may not file the petition more than one year after entry of the parentage judgment.

(d) If the ground for the petition is that the parentage determination was obtained by or was the result of fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party, the petitioner may not file the petition more than one year after the petitioner discovers the fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct.

(3) In the petition, the petitioner shall:

(a) Designate as parties:

(A) All persons who were parties to the parentage judgment;

(B) The child if the child is a child attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108;

(C) The Department of Human Services if the child is in the care and custody of the Department of Human Services under ORS chapter 419B; and

(D) The Administrator of the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice if the child support rights of the child or of one of the parties to the parentage judgment have been assigned to the state.

(b) Provide the full name and date of birth of the child whose parentage was determined by the parentage judgment.

(c) Allege the facts and circumstances that resulted in the entry of the parentage judgment and explain why the issue of parentage was not contested.

(4) After filing a petition under this section, the petitioner shall serve a summons and a true copy of the petition on all parties as provided in ORCP 7.

(5) The court, on its own motion or on the motion of a party, may appoint counsel for the child. However, if requested to do so by the child, the court shall appoint counsel for the child. A reasonable fee for an attorney so appointed may be charged against one or more of the parties or as a cost in the proceeding, but may not be charged against funds appropriated for public defense services.

(6) The court may order the [mother] parent who gave birth to the child, the child and the person whose parentage of the child was determined by the parentage judgment to submit to [blood tests] genetic testing. In deciding whether to order [blood tests] genetic testing, the court shall consider the interests of the parties and the child and, if it is just and equitable to do so, may deny a request for [blood tests] genetic testing. If the court orders [blood tests] genetic testing under this subsection, the court shall order the petitioner to pay the costs of the [blood tests] genetic testing.

(7) Unless the court finds, giving consideration to the interests of the parties and the child, that to do so would be substantially inequitable, the court shall vacate or set aside the parentage determination of the parentage judgment, including provisions imposing child support obligations, and enter a judgment of nonparentage if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The parentage determination was obtained by or was the result of:

(A) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; or

(B) Fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(b) The mistake, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect, fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct was discovered by the petitioner after the entry of the parentage judgment; and

(c)(A) [Blood tests establish] Genetic testing establishes that the person is not the [biological] genetic parent of the child and the parentage determination was based on [biological] genetic parentage; or

(B) The parentage determination was not based on [biological] genetic parentage.

(8) If the court finds that the parentage determination of a parentage judgment was obtained by or was the result of fraud, the court may vacate or set aside the parentage determination regardless of whether the fraud was intrinsic or extrinsic.

(9) [If the court finds, based on blood test evidence, that the person may be the biological parent of the child and that the cumulative paternity or parentage index based on the blood test evidence is 99 or greater, the court shall deny the petition.] The court shall deny a petition to set aside the parentage determination if the court finds, based on genetic testing, that the person is the child's presumed genetic parent under section 45 unless the person has rebutted the presumption as provided in section 45 (2) of this 2025 Act.

(10) The court may grant the relief authorized by this section upon a party's default, or by consent or stipulation of the parties, without [blood test evidence] genetic testing.

(11) A judgment entered under this section vacating or setting aside the parentage determination of a parentage judgment and determining nonparentage:

(a) Shall contain the full name and date of birth of the child whose parentage was established or declared by the parentage judgment.

(b) Shall vacate and terminate any ongoing and future child support obligations arising from or based on the parentage judgment.

(c) May vacate or deem as satisfied, in whole or in part, unpaid child support obligations arising from or based on the parentage judgment.

(d) May not order restitution from the state for any sums paid to or collected by the state for the benefit of the child.

(12) If the court vacates or sets aside the parentage determination of a parentage judgment under this section and enters a judgment of nonparentage, the petitioner shall send a court-certified true copy of the judgment entered under this section to the State Registrar of the Center for Health Statistics and to the Department of Justice as the state disbursement unit. Upon receipt of the court-certified true copy of the judgment entered under this section, the state registrar shall correct any records maintained by the state registrar that indicate that the party to the parentage judgment is the parent of the child.

(13) The court may award to the prevailing party a judgment for reasonable attorney fees and costs, including the cost of any [blood tests] genetic testing ordered by the court and paid by the prevailing party.

(14) A judgment entered under this section vacating or setting aside the parentage determination of a parentage judgment and determining nonparentage is not a bar to further proceedings to determine parentage, as otherwise allowed by law.

(15) If a person whose parentage of a child has been determined by a parentage judgment has died, an action under this section may not be initiated by or on behalf of the estate of the person.

(16) This section does not limit the authority of the court to vacate or set aside a judgment under ORCP 71, to modify a judgment within a reasonable period, to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, to vacate or set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court or to render a declaratory judgment under ORS chapter 28.

(17) This section shall be liberally construed to the end of achieving substantial justice.

SECTION 11. ORS 109.092 is amended to read:

109.092. (1) When it is determined that a [woman] person is pregnant with a child, the [woman] person and any [man] individual to whom [she] the pregnant person is not married and with whom [she] the pregnant person engaged in sexual intercourse at approximately the time of conception have an obligation to recognize that the [man] individual may be the other person responsible for the conception.

(2)(a) During the months of pregnancy, the [man] individual may join the [woman] pregnant person in acknowledging [paternity] parentage and assuming the rights and duties of expectant parenthood.

(b) If the [man] individual acknowledges [paternity] parentage of the expected child and the [woman] pregnant person denies that [he is the father] the individual is the genetic parent of the child or refuses to join [him] the individual in acknowledging [paternity] parentage, the [man] individual may seek relief under ORS 109.125.

(c) If the [woman] pregnant person wants the [man] individual to [join her in acknowledging his paternity] acknowledge the individual's parentage of the expected child and the [man] individual denies [that he is the father] parentage or refuses to [join her in acknowledging paternity] acknowledge parentage, the [woman] pregnant person may seek relief under ORS 109.125.

(3) If after the birth of the child the [mother] parent who gave birth to the child decides to surrender the child for adoption and [paternity] parentage has not been acknowledged as provided in ORS 109.065 [(1)(e)] (5) or the [putative father] alleged genetic parent has not asserted [his] parental rights in [filiation] proceedings to adjudicate parentage of the child, the [mother] parent who gave birth to the child has the right without the consent of the [putative father] alleged genetic parent to surrender the child as provided in ORS 418.270 or to consent to the child's adoption.

(4) Subsection (3) of this section does not apply if the child is an Indian child, as defined in ORS 419B.603.

SECTION 12. ORS 109.096 is amended to read:

109.096. (1) When the parentage of a child has not been established under ORS 109.065 or has not been established or acknowledged under ORS 419B.609, the [putative father] alleged genetic parent is entitled to reasonable notice in adoption or other court proceedings concerning the custody of the child, except for juvenile court proceedings, if the petitioner knows, or by the exercise of ordinary diligence should have known:

(a) That the child resided with the [putative father] alleged genetic parent at any time during the 60 days immediately preceding the initiation of the proceeding, or at any time since the child's birth if the child is less than 60 days old when the proceeding is initiated; or

(b) That the [putative father] alleged genetic parent repeatedly has contributed or tried to contribute to the support of the child during the year immediately preceding the initiation of the proceeding, or during the period since the child's birth if the child is less than one year old when the proceeding is initiated.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, a verified statement of the [mother of the child] parent who gave birth to the child or of the petitioner, or an affidavit of another person with knowledge of the facts, filed in the proceeding and asserting that the child has not resided with the [putative father] alleged genetic parent, as provided in subsection (1)(a) of this section, and that the [putative father] alleged genetic parent has not contributed or tried to contribute to the support of the child, as provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section, is sufficient proof to enable the court to grant the relief sought without notice to the [putative father] alleged genetic parent.

(3) The [putative father] alleged genetic parent is entitled to reasonable notice in a proceeding for the adoption of the child if notice of the initiation of [filiation proceedings] a proceeding to adjudicate parentage as required by ORS 109.225 is on file with the Center for Health Statistics of the Oregon Health Authority prior to the child's being placed in the physical custody of a person or persons for the purpose of adoption by them. If the notice of the initiation of [filiation proceedings] a proceeding to adjudicate parentage is not on file at the time of the placement, the [putative father] alleged genetic parent is barred from contesting the adoption proceeding.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the [putative father] alleged genetic parent is entitled to reasonable notice in court proceedings concerning the custody of the child, other than juvenile court proceedings, if notice of the initiation of [filiation proceedings] a proceeding to adjudicate parentage as required by ORS 109.225 is on file with the Center for Health Statistics prior to the initiation of the proceedings.

(5) Notice under this section is not required to be given to [a putative father] an alleged genetic parent who was a party to a [filiation proceeding] proceeding to adjudicate parentage under ORS 109.125 or to a proceeding to acknowledge or establish parentage of an Indian child under ORS 419B.609 if the proceeding under ORS 109.125 or 419B.609 was dismissed or resulted in a finding that the [putative father] alleged genetic parent was not the [father] parent of the child.

(6) The notice required under this section shall be given in the manner provided in ORS 109.330.

(7) No notice given under this section need disclose the name of the [mother of] parent who gave birth to the child.

(8) [A putative father] An individual who is an alleged genetic parent has the primary responsibility to protect [his] the individual's rights, and nothing in this section [shall] may be used to set aside an act of a permanent nature including, but not limited to, adoption or termination of parental rights, unless the [father] alleged genetic parent establishes within one year after the entry of the final judgment or order fraud on the part of a petitioner in the proceeding with respect to matters specified in subsections (1) to (5) of this section.

SECTION 13. ORS 109.098 is amended to read:

109.098. (1) If [a putative father] an alleged genetic parent of a child by due appearance in a proceeding of which [he] the alleged genetic parent is entitled to notice under ORS 109.096 objects to the relief sought, the court:

(a)(A) May stay the adoption or other court proceeding to await the outcome of the [filiation proceedings] proceeding to adjudicate parentage only if notice of the initiation of [filiation proceedings] the proceeding was on file as required by ORS 109.096 (3) or (4); or

(B) If the child is an Indian child, as defined in ORS 419B.603, shall stay the adoption proceeding to await the outcome of [a determination] an adjudication of the [putative father's] alleged genetic parent's parentage under ORS 419B.609.

(b) Shall, if [neither a filiation proceeding nor a proceeding to determine the putative father's parentage under ORS 419B.609] no proceeding to determine the alleged genetic parent's parentage is pending, inquire as to the [paternity] parentage of the child, the [putative father's] alleged genetic parent's past endeavors to fulfill [his] the alleged genetic parent's obligation to support the child and to contribute to the pregnancy-related medical expenses, the period that the child has lived with the [putative father] alleged genetic parent, the [putative father's] alleged genetic parent's fitness to care for and rear the child and whether the [putative father] alleged genetic parent is willing to be declared the [father] genetic parent of the child and to assume the responsibilities of a [father] parent.

(2) If after inquiry under subsection (1)(b) of this section the court finds:

(a) That the [putative father] alleged genetic parent is the [father] genetic parent of the child and is fit and willing to assume the responsibilities of a [father] parent, it shall have the power:

(A) Except as provided in section 28 of this 2025 Act, upon the request of the [putative father] alleged genetic parent, to [declare his paternity and to certify the fact of paternity] adjudicate the alleged genetic parent's parentage and certify the parentage in the manner provided in ORS 109.094; and

(B) To award custody of the child to either parent as may be in the best interests of the child, or to take any other action which the court may take if the parents are or were married to each other.

(b) That the [putative father is not the father] alleged genetic parent is not the parent of the child, it may grant the relief sought in the proceeding without the [putative father's] alleged genetic parent's consent.

(c) That the [putative father is the natural father] alleged genetic parent is the genetic parent of the child but is not fit or willing to assume the responsibilities of a [father] parent, it may grant the relief sought in the proceeding or any other relief that the court deems to be in the child's best interests [of the child] as described in section 54 of this 2025 Act, notwithstanding the [father's] alleged genetic parent's objection.

(3) If a [putative father of a child] child's alleged genetic parent is given the notice of a proceeding required by ORS 109.096 and [he] fails to enter due appearance and to object to the relief sought therein within the time specified in the notice, the court may grant the relief sought without the [putative father's] alleged genetic parent's consent.

SECTION 14. ORS 109.112 is amended to read:

109.112. (1) The [mother, father or putative father of a child] parent who gave birth to a child and the child's presumed parent, adjudicated parent, acknowledged parent or alleged genetic parent shall be deemed to have attained majority [and,].

(2) Regardless of age, the parent who gave birth to a child or the child's alleged genetic parent may acknowledge parentage as provided in ORS 109.070.

(3) Regardless of age, the parent who gave birth to a child or the child's presumed parent, adjudicated parent, acknowledged parent or alleged genetic parent may give authorizations, releases or waivers, or enter into agreements, in adoption, juvenile court, [filiation] parentage determination or other proceedings concerning the care or custody of the child.

SECTION 15. ORS 109.112, as amended by section 14 of this 2025 Act, is amended to read:

109.112. (1) The parent who gave birth to a child and the child's presumed parent, adjudicated parent, acknowledged parent or alleged genetic parent shall be deemed to have attained majority.

(2) Regardless of age, the parent who gave birth to a child or the child's presumed parent or alleged genetic parent may acknowledge or deny parentage as provided in ORS 109.070.

(3) Regardless of age, the parent who gave birth to a child or the child's presumed parent, adjudicated parent, acknowledged parent or alleged genetic parent may give authorizations, releases or waivers, or enter into agreements, in adoption, juvenile court, parentage determination or other proceedings concerning the care or custody of the child.

SECTION 16. ORS 109.259 is amended to read:

109.259. (1) Notwithstanding the objections of a party to an order that seeks to establish parentage, [if the blood tests conducted under ORS 109.250 to 109.262 result in a cumulative paternity index of 99 or greater, the evidence of the blood tests together with the testimony of a parent is a sufficient basis upon which to presume paternity for establishing temporary support.] parentage of a child may be presumed for the purpose of establishing temporary child support if the person whose parentage is being established is:

(a) A presumed parent;

(b) Petitioning to be adjudicated a parent;

(c) Identified as a genetic parent under section 45 of this 2025 Act;

(d) An alleged genetic parent who has declined to submit to genetic testing;

(e) Shown by clear and convincing evidence to be a parent of the child; or

(f) An intended parent of the child and the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, including under a surrogacy agreement.

(2) Upon the motion of a party, the court shall enter a temporary order requiring the [alleged father] the person whose parentage is being established to provide support pending the determination of parentage by the court.

(3) In determining the amount of support, the court shall use the formula established under ORS 25.275.

SECTION 17. ORS 109.326 is amended to read:

109.326. (1) [If the mother of a child was married at the time of the conception or birth of the child, and it has been determined pursuant to ORS 109.065 or 419B.609 or judicially determined that the mother's spouse at such time or times was not the parent of the child,] If a parent who gave birth to a child was married at the time of the conception or birth of the child, and the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child is adjudicated not to be the parent of the child, the spouse's authorization or waiver is not required in adoption, juvenile court or other proceedings concerning the custody of the child.

(2)(a) If parentage of the child has not been [determined, a determination] adjudicated, an adjudication of nonparentage under this section may be made by any court having adoption, divorce or juvenile court jurisdiction.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (11) of this section, the testimony or affidavit of the [mother or the spouse] parent who gave birth to the child, the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child or another person with knowledge of the facts filed in the proceeding constitutes competent evidence before the court making the determination.

(c) The provisions of this section relating to Indian children do not apply if the determination of nonparentage is being made by a court having divorce jurisdiction or jurisdiction to decide custody between unmarried parents.

(3) Before the court may make the determination of nonparentage, the petitioner shall:

(a) Conduct the inquiry described in ORS 419B.636 (2) to determine whether the petitioner has reason to know that the child is an Indian child; and

(b) Serve on the spouse a summons and a true copy of a motion and order to show cause why a judgment of nonparentage should not be entered if:

(A) [There has been a determination by any court of competent jurisdiction that] The spouse is [the] an adjudicated parent of the child;

(B) The child resided with the spouse at any time since the child's birth;

(C) The spouse repeatedly has contributed or tried to contribute to the support of the child; or

(a) Service must be made in the manner provided in ORCP 7 D and E, except as provided in subsection (7) of this section. Service of the summons and the motion and order to show cause must be proved as required in ORCP 7 F. The summons and the motion and order to show cause need not contain the names of the adoptive parents.

(5) The inquiry required under subsection (3)(a) of this section and notice required under subsection (4)(a) of this section may be combined with the inquiry and notice required under ORS 109.285 or 109.385 if the motion and order to show cause is filed concurrently with the petition for adoption or readoption under ORS 109.285 or 109.385.

(6) A summons under subsection (3) of this section must contain:

(a) A statement that if the spouse fails to file a written answer to the motion and order to show cause within the time provided, the court, without further notice and in the spouse's absence, may take any action that is authorized by law, including but not limited to entering a judgment of nonparentage on the date the answer is required or on a future date.

(b) A statement that:

(A) The spouse must file with the court a written answer to the motion and order to show cause within 30 days after the date on which the spouse is served with the summons or, if service of the summons is made by publication or posting under ORCP 7 D(6), within 30 days from the date of last publication or posting.

(7) A spouse who is served with a summons and a motion and order to show cause under this section shall file with the court a written answer to the motion and order to show cause within 30 days after the date on which the spouse is served with the summons or, if service is made by publication or posting under ORCP 7 D(6), within 30 days from the date of last publication or posting. In the answer, the spouse shall inform the court and the petitioner of the spouse's telephone number or contact telephone number and current address, as defined in ORS 25.011. The answer may be in substantially the form described in subsection (6) of this section.

(8) If the spouse requests the assistance of appointed counsel and the court determines that the spouse is financially eligible, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the spouse at state expense. Appointment of counsel under this subsection is subject to ORS 135.055, 151.216 and 151.219. The court may not substitute one appointed counsel for another except pursuant to the policies, procedures, standards and guidelines adopted under ORS 151.216.

(9) If the spouse files an answer as required under subsection (7) of this section, the court, by oral order made on the record or by written order provided to the spouse in person or mailed to the spouse at the address provided by the spouse, shall:

(a) Inform the spouse of the time, place and purpose of the next hearing or hearings related to the motion and order to show cause or the adoption petition;

(b) Require the spouse to appear personally at the next hearing or hearings related to the motion and order to show cause or the adoption petition; and

(c) Inform the spouse that, if the spouse fails to appear as ordered for any hearing related to the motion and order to show cause or the adoption petition, the court, without further notice and in the spouse's absence, may take any action that is authorized by law, including but not limited to entering a judgment of nonparentage on the date specified in the order or on a future date, without the consent of the spouse.

(10)(a) Upon receiving the petitioner's declaration of compliance under subsection (4)(c) of this section, the court shall review the petitioner's statements and documentation and order that the adoption may proceed if the court finds that the petitioner satisfied the inquiry requirements under ORS 419B.636 (2) and, if applicable, the notice requirements under ORS 419B.639 (2).

(b) If the court finds that the petitioner failed to satisfy the inquiry or, if applicable, notice requirements under ORS 419B.636 (2) and 419B.639 (2), or if the documentation is insufficient for the court to make those findings, the court shall direct the petitioner to cure the inquiry or notice deficiency and file an amended declaration of compliance. The court shall order the petitioner to appear and show cause why the court should not deny the motion and order to show cause if the petitioner fails to file the amended declaration of compliance within a reasonable amount of time.

(11)(a) If a spouse fails to file a written answer as required in subsection (7) of this section or fails to appear for a hearing related to the motion and order to show cause or the petition as directed by court order under this section, the court, without further notice to the spouse and in the spouse's absence, may take any action that is authorized by law, including but not limited to entering a judgment of nonparentage.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may not enter a judgment of nonparentage unless the court finds that the petitioner complied with the inquiry requirements under ORS 419B.636 (2).

(12) If the child is an Indian child:

(a) The court may not enter a judgment of nonparentage with the consent of the spouse unless:

(A) The consent clearly sets out the conditions to the consent, if any;

(B) Prior to the execution of the consent, the court explains to the spouse, on the record in detail and in the language of the spouse, the spouse's right to legal counsel, the terms and consequences of the consent and that the spouse may withdraw the consent at any time prior to the entry of a judgment of adoption or readoption under ORS 109.350;

(C) The spouse executes the consent in person before the court not less than 10 days following the date of the Indian child's birth; and

(D) After the spouse executes the consent, the court certifies that the court provided the explanation in the manner required under subparagraph (B) of this paragraph and that the spouse fully understood the explanation.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (9) or (11) of this section, the court may not enter a judgment of nonparentage without the consent of the spouse unless:

(A) The court has offered to order mediation through the Department of Human Services, or, if there is mutual party agreement to private mediation and to the party assumption of costs, through other mediation services, between the petitioner, spouse, Indian child's tribe and, if applicable, the proposed adoptive placement;

(B) If requested by the tribe, an agreement is in place that requires the petitioner or, if applicable, the proposed adoptive placement to maintain connection between the Indian child and the Indian child's tribe; and

(C) The court finds that:

(i) The petitioner complied with the notice requirements as required under ORS 419B.639 (2);

(ii) Despite petitioner's active efforts, evidence, including the testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses under ORS 419B.642, establishes beyond a reasonable doubt that the continued custody of the Indian child by the spouse is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child and that the petitioner's active efforts under ORS 419B.645 to reunite the Indian family did not eliminate the necessity for termination of the spouse's parental rights based on serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child; and

(iii) That the adoptive placement complies with the placement preferences under ORS 419B.654 (2) or, if not, a finding upon the petitioner's motion under ORS 419B.654 (3) that good cause exists for placement contrary to the placement preferences in ORS 419B.654 (2).

(c) The evidence under paragraph (b)(C)(ii) of this subsection must show a causal relationship between the particular conditions in the Indian child's home and the likelihood that the spouse's continued custody will result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child who is the subject of the adoption proceeding. Evidence that shows the existence of community or family poverty, isolation, single parenthood, custodian age, crowded or inadequate housing, substance abuse or nonconforming social behavior does not, by itself, establish a causal relationship as required by this paragraph.

(13) There shall be sufficient proof to enable the court to grant the relief sought without notice to the spouse if:

(a) The affidavit of the [mother of the child] parent who gave birth to the child, of the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child or of another person with knowledge of the facts filed in the proceeding states or the court finds from other competent evidence:

(A) That the [mother of the child was not cohabiting with the mother's spouse] parent who gave birth to the child was not cohabiting with the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child at the time of conception of the child and that the spouse is not the parent of the child;

(B) That the spouse has not been judicially determined to be the parent of the child;

(C) That the child has not resided with the spouse; and

(D) That the spouse has not contributed or tried to contribute to the support of the child; and

(b) The court finds by clear and convincing evidence, after due diligence on the part of the petitioner, that the child is not an Indian child.

(14) Notwithstanding ORS 109.070 (1)(a), service of a summons and a motion and order to show cause on the spouse under subsection (3) of this section is not required and the spouse's consent, authorization or waiver is not required in adoption proceedings concerning the child unless the child is an Indian child or the spouse has met the requirements of subsection (3)(b)(A), (B) or (C) of this section.

(15) A spouse who was not cohabiting with the [mother] parent who gave birth to the child at the time of the child's conception has the primary responsibility to protect the spouse's rights.

(16) Nothing in this section [shall] may be used to set aside an act of a permanent nature, including but not limited to adoption, unless the parent establishes, within one year or, if the child is an Indian child, four years after the entry of the order or general judgment, as defined in ORS 18.005, fraud on the part of the petitioner with respect to the matters specified in subsection (13)(a) of this section.

(17) If the child is an Indian child, the child's tribe or Indian custodian may intervene at any time as a matter of right.

SECTION 18. ORS 109.326, as amended by section 17 of this 2025 Act, is amended to read:

109.326. (1) If a parent who gave birth to a child was married at the time of the conception or birth of the child, and the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child signs an effective denial of parentage or is adjudicated not to be the parent of the child, the spouse's authorization or waiver is not required in adoption, juvenile court or other proceedings concerning the custody of the child.

(2)(a) If parentage of the child has not been adjudicated, an adjudication of nonparentage under this section may be made by any court having adoption, divorce or juvenile court jurisdiction.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (11) of this section, the testimony or affidavit of the parent who gave birth to the child, the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child or another person with knowledge of the facts filed in the proceeding constitutes competent evidence before the court making the determination.

(c) The provisions of this section relating to Indian children do not apply if the determination of nonparentage is being made by a court having divorce jurisdiction or jurisdiction to decide custody between unmarried parents.

(3) Before the court may make the determination of nonparentage, the petitioner shall:

(a) Conduct the inquiry described in ORS 419B.636 (2) to determine whether the petitioner has reason to know that the child is an Indian child; and

(b) Serve on the spouse a summons and a true copy of a motion and order to show cause why a judgment of nonparentage should not be entered if:

(A) The spouse is an adjudicated parent of the child;

(B) The child resided with the spouse at any time since the child's birth;

(C) The spouse repeatedly has contributed or tried to contribute to the support of the child; or

(D) The petitioner has reason to know that the child is an Indian child.

(4) When the petitioner is required to serve the spouse with a summons and a motion and order to show cause under subsection (3) of this section:

(a) Service must be made in the manner provided in ORCP 7 D and E, except as provided in subsection (7) of this section. Service of the summons and the motion and order to show cause must be proved as required in ORCP 7 F. The summons and the motion and order to show cause need not contain the names of the adoptive parents.

(b) If the petitioner has reason to know that the child is an Indian child, the petitioner shall serve copies of the motion, together with the notice of proceeding required under ORS 419B.639 (3), on:

(A) Each tribe of which the child may be a member or in which the Indian child may be eligible for membership;

(B) The child's parents;

(C) The child's Indian custodian, if applicable; and

(D) The appropriate United States Bureau of Indian Affairs Regional Director listed in 25 C.F.R. 23.11(b), if the identity or location of the child's parents, Indian custodian or tribe cannot be ascertained.

(c) The petitioner shall file a declaration of compliance under penalty of perjury made in the manner described by ORCP 1 E, that includes:

(A) A statement and documentation, as described by the Department of Human Services by rule, of the efforts described in ORS 419B.636 (2) that the petitioner made to determine whether the petitioner has reason to know that the child is an Indian child; and

(B) If the petitioner has reason to know that the child is an Indian child:

(i) A statement describing the efforts the petitioner made, as required under ORS 109.302 (2)(c), to prevent the break up of the family or to reunite the family; and

(ii) A copy of each notice of proceeding the petitioner served as required under paragraph (b) of this subsection, together with any return receipts or other proof of service.

(5) The inquiry required under subsection (3)(a) of this section and notice required under subsection (4)(a) of this section may be combined with the inquiry and notice required under ORS 109.285 or 109.385 if the motion and order to show cause is filed concurrently with the petition for adoption or readoption under ORS 109.285 or 109.385.

(6) A summons under subsection (3) of this section must contain:

(a) A statement that if the spouse fails to file a written answer to the motion and order to show cause within the time provided, the court, without further notice and in the spouse's absence, may take any action that is authorized by law, including but not limited to entering a judgment of nonparentage on the date the answer is required or on a future date.

(b) A statement that:

(A) The spouse must file with the court a written answer to the motion and order to show cause within 30 days after the date on which the spouse is served with the summons or, if service of the summons is made by publication or posting under ORCP 7 D(6), within 30 days from the date of last publication or posting.

(B) In the answer, the spouse must inform the court and the petitioner of the spouse's telephone number or contact telephone number and the spouse's current residence, mailing or contact address in the same state as the spouse's home. The answer may be in substantially the following form:

In the answer, the spouse shall inform the court and the petitioner of the spouse's telephone number or contact telephone number and current address, as defined in ORS 25.011. (8) If the spouse requests the assistance of appointed counsel and the court determines that the spouse is financially eligible, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the spouse at state expense. Appointment of counsel under this subsection is subject to ORS 135.055, 151.216 and 151.219. The court may not substitute one appointed counsel for another except pursuant to the policies, procedures, standards and guidelines adopted under ORS 151.216.

(9) If the spouse files an answer as required under subsection (7) of this section, the court, by oral order made on the record or by written order provided to the spouse in person or mailed to the spouse at the address provided by the spouse, shall:

(a) Inform the spouse of the time, place and purpose of the next hearing or hearings related to the motion and order to show cause or the adoption petition;

(b) Require the spouse to appear personally at the next hearing or hearings related to the motion and order to show cause or the adoption petition; and

(c) Inform the spouse that, if the spouse fails to appear as ordered for any hearing related to the motion and order to show cause or the adoption petition, the court, without further notice and in the spouse's absence, may take any action that is authorized by law, including but not limited to entering a judgment of nonparentage on the date specified in the order or on a future date, without the consent of the spouse.

(10)(a) Upon receiving the petitioner's declaration of compliance under subsection (4)(c) of this section, the court shall review the petitioner's statements and documentation and order that the adoption may proceed if the court finds that the petitioner satisfied the inquiry requirements under ORS 419B.636 (2) and, if applicable, the notice requirements under ORS 419B.639 (2).

(b) If the court finds that the petitioner failed to satisfy the inquiry or, if applicable, notice requirements under ORS 419B.636 (2) and 419B.639 (2), or if the documentation is insufficient for the court to make those findings, the court shall direct the petitioner to cure the inquiry or notice deficiency and file an amended declaration of compliance. The court shall order the petitioner to appear and show cause why the court should not deny the motion and order to show cause if the petitioner fails to file the amended declaration of compliance within a reasonable amount of time.

(11)(a) If a spouse fails to file a written answer as required in subsection (7) of this section or fails to appear for a hearing related to the motion and order to show cause or the petition as directed by court order under this section, the court, without further notice to the spouse and in the spouse's absence, may take any action that is authorized by law, including but not limited to entering a judgment of nonparentage.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may not enter a judgment of nonparentage unless the court finds that the petitioner complied with the inquiry requirements under ORS 419B.636 (2).

(12) If the child is an Indian child:

(a) The court may not enter a judgment of nonparentage with the consent of the spouse unless:

(A) The consent clearly sets out the conditions to the consent, if any;

(B) Prior to the execution of the consent, the court explains to the spouse, on the record in detail and in the language of the spouse, the spouse's right to legal counsel, the terms and consequences of the consent and that the spouse may withdraw the consent at any time prior to the entry of a judgment of adoption or readoption under ORS 109.350;

(C) The spouse executes the consent in person before the court not less than 10 days following the date of the Indian child's birth; and

(ii) Despite petitioner's active efforts, evidence, including the testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses under ORS 419B.642, establishes beyond a reasonable doubt that the continued custody of the Indian child by the spouse is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child and that the petitioner's active efforts under ORS 419B.645 to reunite the Indian family did not eliminate the necessity for termination of the spouse's parental rights based on serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child; and

(iii) That the adoptive placement complies with the placement preferences under ORS 419B.654 (2) or, if not, a finding upon the petitioner's motion under ORS 419B.654 (3) that good cause exists for placement contrary to the placement preferences in ORS 419B.654 (2).

(c) The evidence under paragraph (b)(C)(ii) of this subsection must show a causal relationship between the particular conditions in the Indian child's home and the likelihood that the spouse's continued custody will result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child who is the subject of the adoption proceeding. Evidence that shows the existence of community or family poverty, isolation, single parenthood, custodian age, crowded or inadequate housing, substance abuse or nonconforming social behavior does not, by itself, establish a causal relationship as required by this paragraph.

(13) There shall be sufficient proof to enable the court to grant the relief sought without notice to the spouse if:

(a) The affidavit of the parent who gave birth to the child, of the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child or of another person with knowledge of the facts filed in the proceeding states or the court finds from other competent evidence:

(A) That the parent who gave birth to the child was not cohabiting with the spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child at the time of conception of the child and that the spouse is not the parent of the child;

(B) That the spouse has not been judicially determined to be the parent of the child or the spouse has signed an effective denial of parentage;

(C) That the child has not resided with the spouse; and

(D) That the spouse has not contributed or tried to contribute to the support of the child; and

(b) The court finds by clear and convincing evidence, after due diligence on the part of the petitioner, that the child is not an Indian child.

(14) Notwithstanding ORS 109.070 (1)(a), service of a summons and a motion and order to show cause on the spouse under subsection (3) of this section is not required and the spouse's consent, authorization or waiver is not required in adoption proceedings concerning the child unless the child is an Indian child or the spouse has met the requirements of subsection (3)(b)(A), (B) or (C) of this section.

(15) A spouse who was not cohabiting with the parent who gave birth to the child at the time of the child's conception has the primary responsibility to protect the spouse's rights.

(16) Nothing in this section may be used to set aside an act of a permanent nature, including but not limited to adoption, unless the parent establishes, within one year or, if the child is an Indian child, four years after the entry of the order or general judgment, as defined in ORS 18.005, fraud on the part of the petitioner with respect to the matters specified in subsection (13)(a) of this section.

(17) If the child is an Indian child, the child's tribe or Indian custodian may intervene at any time as a matter of right.

SECTION 19. ORS 419B.395 is amended to read:

419B.395. (1) If in any proceeding under ORS 419B.100 or 419B.500 the juvenile court determines that the child or ward has fewer than two legal parents or that parentage is disputed as allowed in ORS 109.070 or section 6 of this 2025 Act, the court may enter a judgment of parentage or a judgment of nonparentage in compliance with the provisions of ORS 109.065, 109.070, 109.124 to 109.230, [109.250 to 109.262,] 109.326 and 419B.609 and sections 6 and 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act.

(2) The responsibility of the health care facility is limited to providing the form and submitting the form with the report of live birth to the State Registrar of the Center for Health Statistics. The [biological parents] parent who gave birth to the child and the child's alleged genetic parent are responsible for ensuring that the form is accurately completed.

Establishment of parentage under this section is subject to the provisions and the requirements in ORS 109.070.*]

(1)(a) The State Registrar of the Center for Health Statistics shall adopt by rule forms for the voluntary acknowledgment of parentage. A valid acknowledgment of parentage is not affected by a later modification of the form. (b) If there is no second parent named on the child's record of live birth, the filing of a voluntary acknowledgment of parentage form shall cause the state registrar to place the name of the parent acknowledging parentage on the record of live birth of the child or, if appropriate, establish a replacement for the record containing the name of the child's parent, as that parent is named in the voluntary acknowledgment of parentage form.

(c) If there is a second parent already named in the report of live birth, a voluntary acknowledgment of parentage form filed under this subsection must include a denial of parentage form signed by the second parent listed in the report of live birth and the parent who gave birth to the child. The filing of the voluntary acknowledgment of parentage form, together with the denial of parentage form, shall cause the state registrar to establish a replacement for the record of live birth of a child, replacing the name of the individual denying parentage with the name of the individual acknowledging parentage.

[(c)] (d) The state registrar may charge a fee for the filing of the voluntary acknowledgment of parentage form or denial of parentage form created by this section.

(e) A voluntary acknowledgment or denial of parentage form may be signed before or after the birth of the child. A voluntary acknowledgment or denial of parentage takes effect [upon] on the later of the birth of the child or the filing of the form with the state registrar. If a voluntary acknowledgment of parentage form and a denial of parentage form are both required under this subsection, neither is effective until both are filed with the state registrar.

(b) Upon receipt of a rescission of an acknowledgment of parentage, the state registrar shall notify the individual who signed an associated denial, if any, of the rescission and that the denial may be invalid.

(c) Upon receipt of a rescission of a denial of parentage the state registrar shall notify the individual who acknowledged parentage of the rescission and that the acknowledgment may be invalid.

(4)(a) The state registrar is not required to verify the validity of a rescission received under subsection (3) of this section.

(b) A request that a replacement for the record of live birth be prepared to establish parentage, as prescribed by the state registrar by rule, or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction that has [determined the parentage or biological paternity of a person] adjudicated a person's parentage of a child;

(6) Upon receipt of a report of annulment of adoption or a court order annulling an adoption, the original record of live birth must be restored. The replacement for the record of live birth is not subject to inspection, except upon the order of a court of competent jurisdiction in this state or as provided by rule of the state registrar.

(7) The state registrar shall prepare and register a record of foreign live birth for a person born in a foreign country who is not a citizen of the United States and for whom a judgment of adoption was issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state if the court, the parents adopting the child or the adopted person, if the adopted person is 18 years of age or older, requests the record. The record must be labeled "Record of Foreign Live Birth" and shall show the actual country of live birth. After registering the record of foreign live birth in the new name of the adopted person, the record must be placed under seal and is not subject to inspection, except upon the order of a court of competent jurisdiction or as provided by rule of the state registrar.

(8) If there is no record of live birth for a person for whom a replacement for the record of live birth is sought under this section, and if the court order indicates a date of live birth more than one year from the date submitted to the Center for Health Statistics, the replacement for the record of live birth must be created as a delayed record of live birth.

(9) A replacement for the record of live birth may not be created under this section if the date and place of live birth have not been indicated in the court order.

(c)(A) The court finds that the child was conceived as a result of an act that led to the individual's conviction for rape; or

(B) If the individual has not been convicted for rape, the court determines by clear and convincing evidence that the child was conceived as a result of an act constituting rape that was committed by the individual when the individual was at least 18 years of age.

(3) The court may not adjudicate an individual's nonparentage of a child under this section if:

(a) The court determines by clear and convincing evidence that the individual is less than three years older than the parent who gave birth to the child and the child was conceived as a result of an act constituting third degree rape as defined in ORS 163.355 or second degree rape as defined in ORS 163.365, or comparable law of another jurisdiction;

(4) If the court adjudicates an individual's nonparentage of a child under this section, the court shall:

(a) Require the State Registrar for the Center for Health Statistics to amend the record of live birth if requested by the parent who gave birth to the child and if the court determines that the amendment is in the child's best interests, taking into consideration the factors described in section 54 of this 2025 Act; and

(b) Require the individual to pay child support during the child's minority and while the child is a child attending school the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with prenatal care and expenses attendant with the birth and postnatal care unless, at the request of the parent who gave birth to the child, the court determines that requiring the individual to pay such amounts is not in the child's best interests, taking into consideration the factors described in section 54 of this 2025 Act.

(7) An individual entitled to notice under subsection (5) of this section has a right to intervene in the proceeding.

SECTION 31. ORS 109.135 is amended to read:

109.135. (1) All [filiation] judicial proceedings to adjudicate parentage of a child shall be commenced in the circuit court and shall for all purposes be deemed actions in equity. (2) [All filiation proceedings] A judicial proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child shall be commenced and tried, without a jury, in the county:

(a) Where [either party or] the child resides[.];

(b) If the child does not reside in this state, where the respondent resides or is located;

(d) If the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, including under a surrogacy agreement, of the petitioner's choice; or

(e) If the child is in the care and custody of the Department of Human Services, where a juvenile court proceeding is pending.

(3) If judicial proceedings in which the parentage of the same child is at issue are commenced in more than one county, the proceedings shall be stayed except in the county where first commenced until final determination there of venue. A proceeding is considered commenced for purposes of this subsection by the filing of a petition. In determining venue, if the court finds that transfer to another county where a proceeding has been commenced is in the child's best interest, it may in its discretion order such transfer. When the court enters an order transferring the proceeding to another county, the clerk of the court shall notify the court for the other county of the order, and the court for the other county has exclusive jurisdiction of the proceeding to the same extent and with like effect as though the proceeding were in the court on original jurisdiction.

SECTION 32. ORS 109.145 is amended to read:

109.145. If a respondent fails to answer or fails to appear at trial, the court shall have the power to proceed accordingly. In such case, the court may [make a determination of parentage] adjudicate the respondent's parentage or nonparentage of the child and may impose such obligations on the respondent as it deems reasonable. In all such cases corroborating evidence in addition to the testimony of the parent or expectant parent shall be required to establish parentage and the court may, in its discretion, order such investigation or the production of such evidence as it deems appropriate to establish a proper basis for relief. The testimony of the parent or expectant parent and the corroborating evidence may be presented by affidavit.

SECTION 33. ORS 109.155 is amended to read:

109.155. (1) The court, in a private hearing, shall first determine the issue of parentage. If the respondent admits the parentage, the admission shall be reduced to writing, verified by the respondent and filed with the court. If the parentage is denied, corroborating evidence, in addition to the testimony of the [parent or expectant parent] parent who gave birth to the child, shall be required.

[(2) If the court finds, from a preponderance of the evidence, that the petitioner or the respondent is the father of the child who has been, or who may be born out of wedlock, the court shall then proceed to a determination of the appropriate relief to be granted. The court may approve any settlement agreement reached between the parties and incorporate the agreement into any judgment rendered, and the court may order such investigation or the production of such evidence as the court deems appropriate to establish a proper basis for relief.]

[(3)] (2) The court, in its discretion, may postpone the hearing from time to time to facilitate any investigation or the production of such evidence as it deems appropriate.

(3)(a) Except as provided in section 28 of this 2025 Act and ORS 419B.609, if the parent who gave birth to the child is the only other person with a claim to parentage of the child, the court shall adjudicate an alleged genetic parent to be a parent of the child if the alleged genetic parent:

(A) Is identified under section 45 of this 2025 Act as a genetic parent of the child and the identification has not been successfully challenged under section 45 of this 2025 Act;

(B) Admits parentage in a pleading, during the hearing as provided in subsection (1) of this section, when making an appearance or in a settlement agreement in the proceeding, and the court accepts the admission;

(C) Declines to submit to genetic testing ordered by the court or the administrator, even if the alleged genetic parent denies a genetic relationship with the child;

(D) Is in default after service of process and the court determines the alleged genetic parent to be a parent of the child as provided in ORS 109.145; or

(E) Is neither identified nor excluded as a genetic parent by genetic testing and, based on other evidence, the court determines the alleged genetic parent to be a parent of the child.

(b) If a person other than the parent who gave birth to the child or the alleged genetic parent has a claim to parentage of the child and the person's parentage was not disestablished before the proceeding was commenced, the court may not adjudicate an alleged genetic parent to be a parent of the child unless the court also disestablishes the person's parentage of the child as provided in and under the applicable provisions of ORS 109.070, 109.072, 109.326 or 419B.609 or sections 6 or 54 of this 2025 Act.

(4) The court may approve a settlement agreement reached between the parties and incorporate the agreement into the judgment.

[(4)] (5) The court may order either parent to pay such sum as the court deems appropriate for the past and future support and maintenance of the child during the child's minority and while the child is attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108, and the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with prenatal care, expenses attendant with the birth and postnatal care. The court may grant the prevailing party reasonable costs of suit, which may include expert witness fees, and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal. The provisions of ORS 107.108 apply to an order entered under this section for the support of a child attending school.

[(5)] (6) An affidavit certifying the authenticity of documents substantiating expenses set forth in subsection [(4)] (5) of this section is prima facie evidence to establish the authenticity of the documents.

[(6)(a)] (7)(a) It is the policy of this state:

(A) To encourage the settlement of cases brought under this section; and

(B) For courts to enforce the terms of settlements described in paragraph (b) of this subsection to the fullest extent possible, except when to do so would violate the law or would clearly contravene public policy.

(b) In a proceeding under this section, the court may enforce the terms set forth in a stipulated judgment of parentage signed by the parties, a judgment of parentage resulting from a settlement on the record or a judgment of parentage incorporating a settlement agreement:

(A) As contract terms using contract remedies;

(B) By imposing any remedy available to enforce a judgment, including but not limited to contempt; or

(C) By any combination of the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

(c) A party may seek to enforce an agreement and obtain remedies described in paragraph (b) of this subsection by filing a motion, serving notice on the other party in the manner provided by ORCP 7 and, if a remedy under paragraph (b)(B) of this subsection is sought, complying with the statutory requirements for that remedy. All claims for relief arising out of the same acts or omissions must be joined in the same proceeding.

(d) Nothing in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection limits a party's ability, in a separate proceeding, to file a motion to set aside, alter or modify a judgment under ORS 109.165 or to seek enforcement of an ancillary agreement to the judgment.

[(7) If parentage between a person and a child has been established under ORS 109.065 and the parentage has not been disestablished before proceedings are initiated under ORS 109.125, the court may not render a judgment under ORS 109.124 to 109.230 establishing parentage between another person and the child unless the judgment also disestablishes the parentage established under ORS 109.065.]

(8) The court may enter a judgment under this section before the child's birth but enforcement of the judgment is stayed until the birth of the child and the court shall order one or more of the parties to notify the court of the child's birth.

SECTION 34. ORS 109.165 is amended to read:

109.165. (1) Upon motion of either party to a judgment entered under ORS 109.155, the court may set aside, alter or modify any portion of the judgment that provides for the support of the minor child or child attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108. As to any installment or payment of money that has accrued up to the time the nonmoving party, other than the state, is served with a motion to set aside, alter or modify the judgment, the judgment is final and the court may not change it. However, the court may allow a credit against child support arrearages for periods of time, excluding reasonable parenting time unless otherwise provided by order or judgment, during which the obligor, with the knowledge and consent of the obligee or pursuant to court order, has physical custody of the child. A child attending school is a party for purposes of this section.

(2) The moving party shall state in the motion, to the extent known:

(a) Whether there is pending in this state or any other jurisdiction any type of support proceeding involving the child, including a proceeding brought under ORS 25.287, 25.501 to 25.556, 109.100, 125.025 or 419B.400 or ORS chapter 110; and

(b) Whether there exists in this state or any other jurisdiction a support order, as defined in ORS 110.503, involving the child, other than the judgment the party is moving to set aside, alter or modify.

(3) The moving party shall include with the motion a certificate regarding any pending support proceeding and any existing support order other than the judgment the party is moving to set aside, alter or modify. The party shall use a certificate that is in a form established by court rule and include information required by court rule and subsection (2) of this section.

(4)(a) It is the policy of this state:

(A) To encourage the settlement of cases brought under this section; and

(B) For courts to enforce the terms of settlements described in paragraph (b) of this subsection to the fullest extent possible, except when to do so would violate the law or would clearly contravene public policy.

(b) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section, the court may enforce the terms set forth in a stipulated order or judgment signed by the parties, an order or judgment resulting from a settlement on the record or an order or judgment incorporating a settlement agreement:

(A) As contract terms using contract remedies;

(B) By imposing any remedy available to enforce an order or judgment, including but not limited to contempt; or

(C) By any combination of the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

(c) A party may seek to enforce an agreement and obtain remedies described in paragraph (b) of this subsection by filing a motion, serving notice on the other party in the manner provided by ORCP 7 and, if a remedy under paragraph (b)(B) of this subsection is sought, complying with the statutory requirements for that remedy. All claims for relief arising out of the same acts or omissions must be joined in the same proceeding.

(d) Nothing in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection limits a party's ability, in a separate proceeding, to file a motion to modify an order or judgment under subsection (1) of this section or to seek enforcement of an ancillary agreement to the order or judgment.

SECTION 35. ORS 109.175 is amended to read:

109.175. (1) If parentage of a child born out of wedlock is established pursuant to a petition filed under ORS 109.125 or an order or judgment entered pursuant to ORS 25.501 to 25.556 or 109.124 to 109.230, or if parentage is established by the filing of a voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage as provided by ORS 109.065 [(1)(e)] (5), the parent with physical custody at the time of filing of the petition or the notice under ORS 25.511, or the parent with physical custody at the time of the filing of the voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage, has sole legal custody until a court specifically orders otherwise. The first time the court determines who should have legal custody, neither parent shall have the burden of proving a change of circumstances. The court shall give primary consideration to the best interests and welfare of the child and shall consider all the standards set out in ORS 107.137.

(2) In any proceeding under this section, the court may cause an investigation, examination or evaluation to be made under ORS 107.425 or may appoint an individual or a panel or may designate a program to assist the court in creating parenting plans or resolving disputes regarding parenting time and to assist parents in creating and implementing parenting plans under ORS 107.425 (3).

SECTION 36. ORS 109.225 is amended to read:

109.225. (1) After filing [the petition] a petition described in ORS 109.125 and 109.135, the petitioner shall cause the Center for Health Statistics of the Oregon Health Authority to be served by mail with a notice setting forth the court in which the petition was filed, the date of the filing therein, the case number, the full name and address of the child, the date and place of the child's birth, or if the child is not yet born, the date and place of the child's conception and the probable date of the child's birth, the full names and addresses of the child's alleged [parents] genetic parent and the parent who gave or will give birth to the child, and the names and addresses of the petitioner and of the respondents in the proceedings.

(2) The Center for Health Statistics shall file immediately the notice, or a copy thereof, with the record of the birth of the child or in the same manner as its filing of records of birth if the center does not have a record of the birth. The center shall only provide the information contained in the notice to persons whose names appear in the notice or to persons or agencies showing a legitimate interest in the parent-child relationship including, but not limited to, parties to adoption, juvenile court or heirship proceedings.

SECTION 37. ORS 109.230 is amended to read:

109.230. Any contract between [the mother and father of a child born out of wedlock] a parent who gave birth to a child and the child's alleged genetic parent is a legal contract, and the admission by the [father of his fatherhood] alleged genetic parent of parentage of the child is sufficient consideration to support the contract.

SECTION 38. ORS 109.231 is amended to read:

109.231. Records of [filiation] proceedings to adjudicate the parentage of a child's alleged genetic parent filed in circuit court shall be open for inspection by any person without order of the court.

GENETIC TESTING

SECTION 39. UPA 501. Definitions. As used in sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act:

(1) "Combined relationship index" means the product of all tested relationship indices.

(2) "Ethnic or racial group" means, for the purpose of genetic testing, a recognized group that an individual identifies as the individual's ancestry or part of the individual's ancestry or that is identified by other information.

(3) "Hypothesized genetic relationship" means an asserted genetic relationship between an individual and a child.

(4) "Probability of parentage" means, for the ethnic or racial group to which an individual alleged to be a parent belongs, the probability that a hypothesized genetic relationship is supported, compared to the probability that a genetic relationship is supported between the child and a random individual of the ethnic or racial group used in the hypothesized genetic relationship, expressed as a percentage incorporating the combined relationship index and a prior probability.

(5) "Relationship index" means a likelihood ratio that compares the probability of a genetic marker given a hypothesized genetic relationship and the probability of the genetic marker given a genetic relationship between the child and a random individual of the ethnic or racial group used in the hypothesized genetic relationship.

SECTION 40. UPA 502. Scope; limitation on use of genetic testing. (1) Sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act govern genetic testing of an individual in a proceeding to adjudicate parentage, whether the individual:

(a) Voluntarily submits to testing; or

(b) Is tested under an order of the court or a child support agency.

(2) Genetic testing may not be used:

(a) Except as provided in section 70 (3) of this 2025 Act, to challenge the parentage of a child who was conceived by assisted reproduction, including under a gestational surrogacy agreement; or

(b) To establish a donor's parentage of a child who was conceived by assisted reproduction.

SECTION 41. UPA 503. Authority to order or deny genetic testing. (1) Except as otherwise provided in sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act, in a proceeding in this state in which parentage is a relevant fact, the court or the administrator:

(a) May order the child and any other individual to submit to genetic testing:

(A) Upon the court's or administrator's own initiative;

(B) At the request of or on behalf of any person whose genetic material is involved;

(C) At the request of the Department of Human Services if the child is in the care and custody of the department under ORS chapter 419B; or

(D) At the request of a party to the action if the request is made at a time so as not to unduly delay the proceedings; and

(b) Shall order the child and any other individual to submit to genetic testing if a request for testing is supported by the sworn statement of a party:

(A) Alleging a reasonable possibility that the individual is the child's genetic parent; or

(B) Denying genetic parentage of the child and stating facts establishing a reasonable possibility that the individual is not a genetic parent.

(2) The court or administrator agency may not order in utero genetic testing.

(3) If two or more individuals are subject to court-ordered genetic testing, the court may order that testing be completed concurrently or sequentially.

(4) Genetic testing of the person who gave birth to the child is not a condition precedent to testing of the child and an individual whose genetic parentage of the child is being determined. If the person who gave birth to the child is unavailable or declines to submit to genetic testing, the court may order genetic testing of the child and each individual whose genetic parentage of the child is being adjudicated.

(5) The court may deny a motion for genetic testing of the child and any other individual after considering the factors in section 54 of this 2025 Act if the genetic testing is requested in a proceeding:

(a) To adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed parent;

(b) To challenge an acknowledgment of parentage; or

(c) Except as provided in section 70 (3) of this 2025 Act, to determine whether a gestational surrogate is the genetic parent of a child believed to have been conceived by assisted reproduction under a gestational surrogacy agreement.

(6) The court may only approve an individual's request for genetic testing if the individual has standing to maintain a proceeding to adjudicate parentage and any statute of limitations or time limits for initiating a proceeding to adjudicate parentage that are applicable to the individual have not expired.

(7) If any individual declines to submit to genetic testing ordered by the court, the court or administrator may:

(a) If the rights of others and the interests of justice so require, resolve the question of parentage against such person or enforce the court's or administrator's order; or

(b) Find the individual in contempt of court.

(8) Subject to the limitations in section 6 (2) of this 2025 Act and ORS 109.070 (6)(c), the Department of Human Services is not required to obtain a court order under this section to make a referral for genetic testing at the request of a party or a child's alleged genetic parent if the child is in the department's care and custody.

SECTION 42. UPA 504. Requirements for genetic testing. (1) Genetic testing must be of a type reasonably relied on by experts in the field of genetic testing and performed in a testing laboratory accredited by:

(a) The Association for the Advancement of Blood and Biotherapies, or a successor to its functions; or

(b) An accrediting body designated by the Oregon Health Authority by rule, consistent with any applicable designation by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

(2) A specimen used in genetic testing may consist of a sample or a combination of samples of blood, buccal cells, bone, hair or other body tissue or fluid. The specimen used in the testing need not be of the same kind for each individual undergoing genetic testing.

(3) Based on the ethnic or racial group of an individual undergoing genetic testing, a testing laboratory shall determine the databases from which to select frequencies for use in calculating a relationship index. If an individual or the administrator objects to the laboratory's database determination, the following rules apply:

(a) Not later than 30 days after receipt of the report of the test, the objecting individual or administrator may request the court to require the laboratory to recalculate the relationship index using an ethnic or racial group different from that used by the laboratory.

(b) The individual or the administrator objecting to the laboratory's database determination under this subsection shall:

(A) If the requested frequencies are not available to the laboratory for the ethnic or racial group requested, provide the requested frequencies compiled in a manner recognized by accrediting bodies; or

(B) Engage another laboratory to perform the calculations.

(c) The laboratory may use its own statistical estimate if there is a question about which ethnic or racial group is appropriate. The laboratory shall calculate the frequencies using statistics, if available, for any other ethnic or racial group requested.

(4) If, after recalculation of the relationship index under subsection (3) of this section using a different ethnic or racial group, genetic testing under section 45 of this 2025 Act does not identify an individual as a genetic parent of a child, the court may require an individual who has been tested to submit to additional genetic testing to identify a genetic parent.

SECTION 43. UPA 505. Report of genetic testing. (1) A report of genetic testing must be in writing and signed under penalty of perjury by a designee of the testing laboratory. A report complying with the requirements of sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act is self-authenticating.

(2) Documentation from a testing laboratory of the following information is sufficient to establish a reliable chain of custody and allow the results of genetic testing to be admissible without testimony:

(a) The name and photograph of each individual whose specimen has been taken;

(b) The name of the individual who collected each specimen;

(c) The place and date each specimen was collected;

(d) The name of the individual who received each specimen in the testing laboratory; and

(e) The date each specimen was received.

SECTION 44. UPA 606. Admissibility of results of genetic testing. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 40 (2) of this 2025 Act, the court shall admit a report of genetic testing ordered by the court under section 41 of this 2025 Act as evidence of the truth of the facts asserted in the report.

(2) A party may object to the admission of a report described in subsection (1) of this section, not later than 14 days after the party receives the report. The party shall cite specific grounds for exclusion.

(3) A party that objects to the results of the genetic testing may call a genetic testing expert to testify in person or by another method approved by the court. Unless the court orders otherwise, the party offering the testimony bears the expense for the expert testifying.

(4) Admissibility of a report of genetic testing is not affected by whether the testing was performed:

(a) Voluntarily or under an order of the court or the administrator; or

(b) Before, on or after commencement of the proceeding.

SECTION 45. UPA 506. Genetic testing results; challenge to results. (1) An individual is rebuttably presumed to be a genetic parent of a child if genetic testing complies with sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act and the results of the testing disclose:

(a) The individual has at least a 99 percent probability of parentage, using a prior probability of 0.50, as calculated by using the combined relationship index obtained in the testing; and

(b) A combined relationship index of at least 100 to 1.

(2) An individual presumed to be a genetic parent of the child under this section may challenge the genetic testing results only by other genetic testing satisfying the requirements of sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act that:

(a) Excludes the individual as a genetic parent of the child; or

(b) Identifies another individual as a possible genetic parent of the child other than:

(A) The person who gave birth to the child; or

(B) The individual identified under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in section 50 of this 2025 Act, if more than one individual other than the person who gave birth is identified by genetic testing as a possible genetic parent of the child, the court shall order each individual to submit to further genetic testing to identify a genetic parent.

SECTION 46. UPA 507. Cost of genetic testing. (1) Payment of the cost of initial genetic testing must be made:

(a) By the Child Support Program if child support enforcement services are being provided under ORS 25.080;

(b) By the individual or agency that made the request for genetic testing;

(c) As agreed by the parties; or

(d) As ordered by the court.

(2) If the cost of genetic testing is paid by the Child Support Program, the program may seek reimbursement from the person or agency that requested the tests.

(3) If the original test result is contested prior to the entry of an order or judgment establishing parentage, the court or the administrator shall order additional testing upon request and advance payment by the party making the request.

SECTION 47. UPA 508. Additional genetic testing. The court or the administrator shall order additional genetic testing at the request of an individual who contests the result of the initial testing under section 45 of this 2025 Act. If initial genetic testing under section 45 of this 2025 Act identified an individual as a genetic parent of the child, the court or the administrator may not order additional testing unless the contesting individual pays for the testing in advance.

SECTION 48. UPA 509. Genetic testing when specimen not available. (1) The court may order relatives of an alleged genetic parent to submit specimens for testing if:

(a) A genetic testing specimen is not available from the alleged genetic parent;

(b) The individual seeking genetic testing demonstrates good cause and the court finds that the circumstances are just; and

(c) The court finds that the need for genetic testing outweighs the legitimate interests of the individual sought to be tested.

(2) The court may order any of the following individuals to submit specimens for genetic testing under this section:

(a) A parent of the alleged genetic parent;

(b) A sibling of the alleged genetic parent;

(c) Another child of the alleged genetic parent and the person who gave birth to the other child; and

(d) another relative of the alleged genetic parent as necessary to complete genetic testing.

SECTION 49. UPA 510. Deceased individual. If an individual seeking genetic testing demonstrates good cause, the court may order genetic testing of a deceased individual.

SECTION 50. UPA 511. Identical siblings. (1) If the court finds there is reason to believe that an alleged genetic parent has an identical sibling and evidence that the sibling may be a genetic parent of the child, the court may order genetic testing of the sibling.

(2) If more than one sibling is identified under section 45 of this 2025 Act as a genetic parent of the child, the court may rely on nongenetic evidence to adjudicate which sibling is a genetic parent of the child.

SECTION 51. UPA 512. Confidentiality of genetic testing. Release of a report of genetic testing for parentage is subject to the privacy protections under ORS 192.531 to 192.549.

SECTION 52. ORS 109.260 is amended to read:

109.260. [ORS 109.250 to 109.262] Sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act apply to criminal cases for nonsupport under ORS 163.555 subject to the following limitations and provisions:

(1) An order for the tests shall be made only upon application of a party or on the court's initiative.

(2) The compensation of the experts shall be paid by the county in which the proceedings are had under order of court.

(3) The court may direct a verdict of acquittal upon the conclusions of all the experts under the provisions of [ORS 109.258] section 45 of this 2025 Act, otherwise the case shall be submitted for determination upon all evidence.

SECTION 53. ORS 109.250, 109.251, 109.252, 109.254, 109.256, 109.258, 109.262 and 109.264 are repealed.

SECTION 53a. Notwithstanding section 60, chapter 99, Oregon Laws 2025 (Enrolled House Bill 3348) (amending ORS 109.252), if House Bill 3348 becomes law, ORS 109.252 is repealed by section 53 of this 2025 Act.

COMPETING CLAIMS OF PARENTAGE

SECTION 54. UPA 613. Adjudicating competing claims of parentage. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 28 of this 2025 Act, in a proceeding to adjudicate competing claims of, or challenges under ORS 109.070 or 109.072 or section 6 (3) of this 2025 Act to, parentage of a child by two or more individuals, the court shall adjudicate parentage in the best interest of the child, taking into consideration, at a minimum:

(a) The age of the child;

(b) The length of time during which each individual assumed the role of parent of the child;

(c) The nature of the relationship between the child and each individual;

(d) The harm to the child if the relationship between the child and each individual is not recognized;

(e) The basis for each individual's claim to parentage of the child; and

(f) Other equitable factors arising from the disruption of the relationship between the child and each individual or the likelihood of other harm to the child.

(2) If an individual challenges parentage based on the results of genetic testing, in addition to the factors listed in subsection (1) of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) The facts surrounding the discovery the individual might not be a genetic parent of the child; and

(b) The length of time between the time that the individual was placed on notice that the individual might not be a genetic parent and the commencement of the proceeding.

ASSISTED REPRODUCTION
(Generally)

SECTION 55. UPA 612. Adjudicating parentage of child of assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a proceeding under sections 55 to 62 of this 2025 Act to adjudicate the parentage of a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, may be commenced by:

(a) An alleged intended parent;

(b) The parent who gave birth to the child; or

(c) The child's presumed parent.

(2) If the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, the parentage of an individual who is the child's presumed parent may be challenged under this section:

(a) By the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent;

(b) If the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent are married and cohabiting, by any person with standing under subsection (1) of this section if the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent both consent to the challenge; or

(c) If the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent are no longer married and cohabiting, by any person with standing under subsection (1) of this section.

(3)(a) The court shall adjudicate an individual's parentage of a child in a proceeding commenced under this section as provided in sections 55 to 62 of this 2025 Act.

(b) If the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, and a person other than the individual or the parent who gave birth to the child is a parent under sections 55 to 62 of this 2025 Act, the court shall adjudicate the individual's parentage of the child under section 54 of this 2025 Act.

(4) Nothing in this section prohibits an individual from asserting a claim to or commencing an action to adjudicate the parentage of a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, under section 6 of this 2025 Act or ORS 109.070 or 109.072, as applicable.

SECTION 56. Section 55 of this 2025 Act is amended to read:

Sec. 55. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a proceeding under sections 55 to 62 of this 2025 Act to adjudicate the parentage of a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, may be commenced by:

(a) An alleged intended parent;

(b) The parent who gave birth to the child; [or]

(c) The child's presumed parent; or

(d) The child's acknowledged parent.

(2) If the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, the parentage of an individual who is the child's presumed parent or acknowledged parent under ORS 109.070 (1)(a)(B) may be challenged under this section:

(a) By the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent or acknowledged parent;

(b) If the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent or acknowledged parent are married and cohabiting, by any person with standing under subsection (1) of this section if the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent or acknowledged parent both consent to the challenge; or

(c) If the parent who gave birth to the child and the child's presumed parent or acknowledged parent are no longer married and cohabiting, by any person with standing under subsection (1) of this section.

(3)(a) The court shall adjudicate an individual's parentage of a child in a proceeding commenced under this section as provided in sections 55 to 62 of this 2025 Act.

(b) If the child was conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, and a person other than the individual or the parent who gave birth to the child is a parent under sections 55 to 62 of this 2025 Act, the court shall adjudicate the individual's parentage of the child under section 54 of this 2025 Act.

(4) Nothing in this section prohibits an individual from commencing an action to adjudicate or asserting a claim to the parentage of a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, under section 6 of this 2025 Act or ORS 109.070 or 109.072, as applicable.

SECTION 57. UPA 702. Parental status of donor. A donor is not a parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction.

SECTION 58. UPA 703/704. Parentage of child of assisted reproduction; consent. (1) An individual's parentage of a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement:

(a) Is established by operation of law if:

(A) Before, on or after the child's birth, the individual consents in writing to the assisted reproduction;

(B) The writing states that the individual intends to be a parent of the child; and

(C) The writing is signed by the individual and the parent who gave birth to the child; or

(b) May be established by judgment of the court if the individual did not consent in writing or the writing does not meet the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection and a court finds by clear and convincing evidence that:

(A) The individual and the parent who gave birth to the child entered into an express agreement before the child's conception that the individual and the parent who gave birth to the child both would be parents of the child; or

(B) The individual and the parent who gave birth to the child resided together in the same household with the child and both openly held out the child as the individual's child:

(i) For the first two years of the child's life, including any period of temporary absence; or

(ii) From the child's birth until the death of the child or the death or incapacity of the individual, if, before the child attains two years of age, the child dies or the individual dies or becomes incapacitated, and a party proves by clear and convincing evidence that the parent who gave birth to the child and the individual both intended the individual would openly hold out the child as the individual's child, but the individual was prevented from carrying out that intent by the death of the child or the individual's death or incapacity.

(2) When determining whether an individual's absence was temporary under subsection (1) of this section, the court shall consider the totality of the circumstances, including whether the individual's absence was due to military service.

SECTION 59. UPA 705. Limitation on spouse's dispute of parentage. The court shall find that an individual who is the presumed parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, is not the parent of the child and that the presumption is rebutted if:

(1)(a) The individual provided the gametes used in the assisted reproduction;

(b) The individual challenges the presumption within two years following the birth of the child; and

If the marriage of a parent who gave birth to a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, is terminated through dissolution, annulment or legal separation before the transfer that results in a pregnancy, the former spouse of the parent who gave birth to the child conceived by the assisted reproduction is not a parent of the child unless the former spouse consented in writing that the former spouse would be a parent of the child if a transfer resulting in pregnancy were to occur after a dissolution, annulment or legal separation, and the former spouse did not withdraw consent as provided in section 61 of this 2025 Act.

SECTION 61. UPA 707. Withdrawal of consent. (1) An individual who consents to assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, may withdraw consent any time before a transfer that results in a pregnancy by giving written notice of the withdrawal of consent to the person who agreed to give birth to a child conceived by the assisted reproduction.

(1) If an individual who intends to be a parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction, other than under a surrogacy agreement, dies during the period between the date of transfer and the birth of the child, the individual's death does not preclude the establishment of the individual's parentage of the child in the same manner as if the individual had died after the birth of the child.

(2) If an individual who consented in writing to assisted reproduction as described in section 58 (1)(a) of this 2025 Act dies before a transfer that results in pregnancy, the deceased individual is a parent of a child conceived by the transfer only if:

(B) The individual's intent to be a parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction after the individual's death is established by clear and convincing evidence; and

(Under gestational surrogacy agreement)

SECTION 63. UPA 802. Eligibility to enter gestational surrogacy agreement. (1) An individual may enter into an agreement to act as a gestational surrogate only if the individual:

(d) Has completed a mental health consultation by a licensed mental health care provider; and

SECTION 64. UPA 803. Requirements of gestational surrogacy agreement; process. A gestational surrogacy agreement must be executed in compliance with the following rules:

(1)(a) At least one party must be a resident of this state;

(b) The transfer that results in the pregnancy must occur in this state; or

(c) The parties must all intend that the child be born in this state.

(2) A gestational surrogate and each intended parent must meet the requirements of section 63 of this 2025 Act.

(3) Each intended parent, the surrogate and the surrogate's spouse, if any, must be parties to the agreement.

(4) The agreement must be in writing and signed by each party listed in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The surrogate and each intended parent must acknowledge in writing receipt of a copy of the agreement.

(6) The signature of each party to the agreement must be made under penalty of perjury or notarized.

(7) The agreement must identify the attorneys the parties have retained to provide legal representation throughout the surrogacy arrangement.

(8) The intended parent or parents must agree to pay for independent legal representation for the surrogate.

(9) The agreement must be executed before a transfer that results in the agreed upon pregnancy.

SECTION 65. UPA 804. Requirements of gestational or genetic surrogacy agreement; content. (1) A gestational surrogacy agreement must comply with the following requirements:

(a) A surrogate agrees to attempt to become pregnant by means of assisted reproduction.

(b) The surrogate and the surrogate's spouse or former spouse, if any, have no claim to parentage of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement.

(c) The surrogate's spouse, if any, must acknowledge and agree to comply with the obligations imposed on the surrogate by the agreement.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in section 102 of this 2025 Act, the intended parent or, if there are two intended parents, each one jointly and severally, immediately on birth will be the exclusive parent or parents of the child, regardless of number of children born or gender or mental or physical condition of each child.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in section 102 of this 2025 Act, the intended parent or, if there are two intended parents, each parent jointly and severally, immediately on birth will assume responsibility for the financial support of the child, regardless of number of children born or gender or mental or physical condition of each child.

(f) The agreement must include information disclosing how each intended parent will cover the surrogacy-related expenses of the surrogate and the medical expenses of the child. If health care coverage is used to cover the medical expenses, the disclosure must include a summary of the health care policy provisions related to coverage for surrogate pregnancy, including any possible liability of the surrogate, third party liability liens, other insurance coverage, and any notice requirement that could affect coverage or liability of the surrogate. Unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise, the review and disclosure do not constitute legal advice. If the extent of coverage is uncertain, a statement of that fact is sufficient to comply with this paragraph.

(g) The agreement must permit the surrogate to make all health and welfare decisions regarding the surrogate and the pregnancy, including decisions regarding reproductive health care, as defined in ORS 435.190.

(h) The agreement must include information about each party's right under section 69 of this 2025 Act to terminate the surrogacy agreement.

(2) A gestational surrogacy agreement may provide for:

(a) Payment of consideration and reasonable expenses; and

(b) Reimbursement of specific expenses if the agreement is terminated under section 69 of this 2025 Act.

(3) A right created under a surrogacy agreement is not assignable and there is no third party beneficiary of the agreement other than the child.

SECTION 66. UPA 805. Surrogacy agreement; effect of subsequent change of marital status. (1) Unless a gestational surrogacy agreement expressly provides otherwise, after the agreement is signed by all of the parties:

(a) The subsequent marriage of a surrogate does not affect the validity of the agreement, the consent of the surrogate's new spouse to the agreement is not required and the surrogate's new spouse is not a presumed parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement; and

(b) The subsequent dissolution, annulment or legal separation of the surrogate does not affect the validity of the agreement.

(2) Unless a gestational surrogacy agreement expressly provides otherwise, after the agreement is signed by all of the parties:

(a) The marriage of an intended parent does not affect the validity of a surrogacy agreement, the consent of the new spouse of the intended parent is not required and the new spouse of the intended parent is not, based on the agreement, a parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement; and

(b) The dissolution, annulment or legal separation of an intended parent does not affect the validity of the agreement and unless the agreement is terminated under section 69 of this 2025 Act, the intended parents are the parents of any child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits the parties before an embryo transfer that results in the agreed upon pregnancy from jointly amending the existing agreement.

SECTION 67. UPA 806. Inspection of documents. (1) A petition and any other document related to a surrogacy agreement filed with the court shall be sealed, exempt from public disclosure under ORS 192.311 to 192.478 and may not be disclosed except:

(a) To a party to the proceeding;

(b) To a child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement;

(c) To an attorney of a party to the proceeding or a child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement;

(d) The court; or

(e) Pursuant to a court order for good cause shown, and subject to the provisions of ORS 192.324.

(2) The individual seeking to inspect the document may be required to pay the expense of preparing a copy of the document to be inspected.

SECTION 68. UPA 807. Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction. During the period after the execution of a gestational surrogacy agreement until 90 days after the birth of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement, a court of this state conducting a proceeding in which the parentage of the child is a relevant fact has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction over all matters arising out of the agreement. Nothing in this section grants the court jurisdiction to make or enforce a judgment of support or a child custody determination if the court does not otherwise have such jurisdiction.

SECTION 69. UPA 808. Termination of gestational surrogacy agreement. (1) A party to a gestational surrogacy agreement may terminate the agreement, at any time before an embryo transfer, by giving written notice of termination to all other parties. If an embryo transfer does not result in a pregnancy, a party may terminate the agreement at any time before a subsequent embryo transfer.

(2) Unless a gestational surrogacy agreement provides otherwise, on termination of the agreement under subsection (1) of this section, the parties are released from the agreement, except that each intended parent remains responsible for expenses that are reimbursable under the agreement and incurred by the gestational surrogate through the date of termination.

(3) Except in a case involving fraud, neither a gestational surrogate nor the surrogate's spouse or former spouse, if any, is liable to the intended parent or parents for a penalty or liquidated damages, for terminating a gestational surrogacy agreement under this section.

SECTION 70. UPA 809. Parentage under gestational surrogacy agreement. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section or section 71 (2) or 74 of this 2025 Act, on birth of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under a gestational surrogacy agreement, each intended parent is, by operation of law, a parent of the child.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section or section 74 of this 2025 Act, neither a gestational surrogate nor the surrogate's spouse or former spouse, if any, is a parent of the child.

(3)(a) If a child is alleged to be a genetic child of the individual who agreed to be a gestational surrogate, the court:

(A) Shall order genetic testing of the child as provided in sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act; or

(B) Upon the joint request of the individual and the intended parent or parents, shall admit a report of genetic testing as evidence of the truth of the facts asserted in the report if the parties voluntarily consent to genetic testing that complies with sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act.

(b) If the individual is presumed to be a genetic parent of the child as provided in section 45 of this 2025 Act, the child is not a child conceived by assisted reproduction under a surrogacy agreement for purposes of establishing parentage of the child under ORS 109.065.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section or section 71 (2) or 74 of this 2025 Act, each intended parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under a gestational surrogacy agreement is a parent of the child if, due to a clinical or laboratory error, the child is not genetically related to an intended parent or to a donor who donated to the intended parent or parents, subject to any other claim of parentage.

SECTION 71. UPA 810. Gestational surrogacy agreement; parentage of deceased intended parent. (1) Section 70 of this 2025 Act applies to an intended parent even if the intended parent dies during the period between the transfer resulting in a pregnancy and the birth of the child.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in section 74 of this 2025 Act, an intended parent who dies before the transfer resulting in a child conceived by assisted reproduction under a gestational surrogacy agreement is the child's parent only if:

(a) The agreement provides that the intended parent would be the parent of a child conceived by a transfer occurring after the intended parent's death; and

(b) The transfer occurs not later than 24 months after the death of the intended parent.

SECTION 72. UPA 811. Gestational surrogacy agreement; judgment of parentage. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 70 (3) of this 2025 Act, before, on or after the birth of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under a gestational surrogacy agreement, a party to the agreement may commence a proceeding in the circuit court for a judgment:

(a) Declaring that each intended parent is a parent of the child and ordering that parental rights and duties vest immediately on the birth of the child exclusively in each intended parent;

(b) Declaring that the gestational surrogate and the surrogate's spouse or former spouse, if any, are not the parents of the child;

(c) To protect the privacy of the child and the parties, declaring that the court record is not open to inspection, except as authorized under section 67 of this 2025 Act;

(d) If necessary, that the child be surrendered to the intended parent or parents; and

(e) For other relief the court determines necessary and proper.

(2) The court may issue a judgment under subsection (1) of this section before the birth of the child but the court shall stay enforcement of the judgment until the birth of the child and shall order one or more of the parties to notify the court of the child's birth.

(3) Neither this state nor the state registrar is a necessary party to a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 73. Section 72 of this 2025 Act is amended to read:

Sec. 72. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 70 (3) of this 2025 Act, before, on or after the birth of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under a gestational surrogacy agreement, a party to the agreement may commence a proceeding in the circuit court for a judgment:

Each party to the agreement and any individual who at the time of the execution of the agreement was a spouse of a party to the agreement has standing to maintain a proceeding to adjudicate an issue related to the enforcement of the agreement.

(3) Except as expressly provided in a gestational surrogacy agreement or subsection (4) or (5) of this section, if the agreement is breached by the gestational surrogate, the gestational surrogate's spouse or one or more intended parents, the nonbreaching party is entitled to the remedies available at law or in equity.

(4) Specific performance is not a remedy available for breach by a gestational surrogate of a provision in the agreement that the gestational surrogate be impregnated, terminate or not terminate a pregnancy or submit to medical procedures.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, if an intended parent is determined to be a parent of the child, specific performance is a remedy available for:

(a) Breach of the agreement by a gestational surrogate or the gestational surrogate's spouse that prevents the intended parent from exercising immediately on birth of the child the full rights of parentage; or

(b) Breach by the intended parent that prevents the intended parent's acceptance, immediately on birth of the child conceived by assisted reproduction under the agreement, of the duties of parentage.

The Department of Justice shall adopt rules addressing the provision of support enforcement services when the purposes of the state in providing those services may be contradictory in individual cases.

(3) Notwithstanding the division of responsibility for providing support enforcement services between the Division of Child Support and the district attorney as described in subsection (1) of this section, provision of support enforcement services may not be challenged on the basis that the entity providing the services in a particular case is not the entity responsible for the case under subsection (1) of this section.

The state shall offset the loss from any moneys the state is holding for or owes the county or from any moneys the state would pay to the county for any purpose.

(8) The Department of Justice shall enter into an agreement with the Oregon District Attorneys Association to establish a position or positions to act as a liaison between the Division of Child Support and those district attorneys who provide support enforcement services under this section. If service performed results in the district attorney or the Division of Child Support recovering any support enforcement fees, the fees shall be paid to the applicant in an amount equal to the amount of the application fee.

(10) An obligee may request the Division of Child Support or a district attorney to cease all collection efforts if it is anticipated that physical or emotional harm will be caused to the parent or caretaker relative or the child for whom support was to have been paid. The department, by rule, shall set out the circumstances under which such requests shall be honored.

If no agreement is reached on the monthly support to be paid, the administrator may issue a new notice and finding of financial responsibility, which may be sent to the parent and to the obligee by regular mail addressed to the parent's and to the obligee's last-known address, or if applicable, the parent's or the obligee's attorney's last-known address;

(g) A statement that if the parent or the obligee objects to all or any part of the notice and finding of financial responsibility, then the parent or the obligee must send to the office issuing the notice, within 30 days of the date of service, a written response that sets forth any objections and requests a hearing;

(h) A statement that if such a timely response is received by the appropriate office, either the parent or the obligee or both shall have the right to a hearing; and that if no timely written response is received, the administrator may enter an order in accordance with the notice and finding of financial responsibility;

(3) If the [paternity] parentage of the dependent child has not been legally established, the notice and finding of financial responsibility shall also include:

(e) A statement that if the alleged genetic parent or the obligee does not timely send to the office issuing the notice a written response that denies [paternity] parentage and requests a hearing, then the administrator, without further notice to the alleged genetic parent, or to the obligee, may enter an order that declares and establishes the alleged genetic parent as the legal parent of the child.

(4) The statement of monthly future support required under subsection (2)(b) and the statement of past support required under subsection (2)(c) of this section are to be computed as follows:

(a) If there is sufficient information available concerning the parent's financial and living situation, the formula provided for in ORS 25.275 and 25.280 shall be used; or

(b) If there is insufficient information available to use the formula, an allegation of ability to pay shall be the basis of the statement.

(5) The parent or alleged genetic parent and the obligee shall have time to request a hearing as outlined in subsection (2)(g) of this section. The time limits may be extended by the administrator and are nonjurisdictional.

(6) If a timely written response setting forth objections and requesting a hearing is received by the appropriate office, a hearing shall be held under ORS 25.513.

(7) If no timely written response and request for hearing is received by the appropriate office, the administrator may enter an order in accordance with the notice, and shall include in that order:

(8) The parent and the obligee shall be sent a copy of the order by regular mail addressed to the last-known address of each of the parties or if applicable, to the last-known address of an attorney of record for a party. The order is final, and action by the administrator to enforce and collect upon the order, including arrearages, may be taken from the date of issuance of the order.

(9) The provisions of ORS 107.108 apply to an order entered under this section for the support of a child attending school.

SECTION 95. ORS 25.550 is amended to read:

25.550. (1) The administrator may establish [paternity] parentage of a child in the course of a support proceeding under ORS 25.501 to 25.556 when both parents sign statements that [paternity] parentage has not been legally established and that the [male parent is the father] alleged genetic parent is the parent of the child. The administrator may enter an order which establishes [paternity] parentage.

(2) If the alleged genetic parent fails to file a response denying [paternity] parentage and requesting a hearing within the time period allowed in ORS 25.511 (2), then the administrator, without further notice to the alleged genetic parent, may enter an order, in accordance with ORS 25.511 (7), which declares and establishes the parent as the legal [father] parent of the child.

(3) Any order entered pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section establishes legal [paternity] parentage for all purposes. The Center for Health Statistics of the Oregon Health Authority shall amend the record of live birth for the child and issue a new certified copy of the record of live birth in the new name, if any, of the child. The original record of live birth shall be sealed and filed and may be opened only upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4)(a) If [paternity] parentage is alleged under ORS 25.511 (3) and a written response denying [paternity] parentage and requesting a hearing is received within the time period allowed in ORS 25.511 (2), or if the administrator determines that there is a valid issue with respect to [paternity] parentage of the child, the administrator, subject to the provisions of subsections (5) and (6) of this section, shall certify the matter to the circuit court for a determination based upon the contents of the file and any evidence which may be produced at trial. The proceedings in court shall for all purposes be deemed suits in equity. The provisions of ORS 109.145 to 109.230 apply to proceedings certified to court by the administrator pursuant to this section.

(b) Any response denying [paternity] parentage and requesting a hearing shall be sent by the enforcement office to the obligee by regular mail.

(5) An action to establish [paternity] parentage initiated under ORS 25.501 to 25.556 [shall] may not be certified to court for trial unless all of the following have occurred:

(a) [Blood tests have] Genetic testing has been conducted;

(b) The results of the [blood tests] genetic testing have been served upon the parties and notice has been given that an order establishing [paternity] parentage will be entered unless a written objection is received within 30 days; and

(c) A written objection to the entry of an order has been timely received from a party.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5) of this section, the administrator:

(a) Shall certify the matter to court:

(A) Within 30 days of receipt by the administrator of a timely written objection to the entry of an order by a party under subsection (5)(c) of this section;

(B) When a party requests certification in writing after the administrator has received a party's written denial of [paternity] parentage if at least 120 days have elapsed from receipt of the denial; or

(C) Upon receipt of [blood test results with a cumulative paternity index] genetic testing results with a combined relationship index of less than 99; and

(b) May certify the matter to court at any time under any other circumstances.

(7) If the [blood tests conducted under ORS 109.250 to 109.262 result in a cumulative paternity index] genetic testing conducted under sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act result in a combined relationship index of 99 or greater, evidence of the tests, together with the testimony of the parent, shall be a sufficient basis upon which to establish [paternity] parentage and the administrator may enter an order declaring the [alleged father] genetic parent as the legal [father] parent of the child unless a party objects in writing to the entry of the order. The testimony of the parent may be presented by affidavit.

(8) Prior to certification to court, the administrator may attempt to resolve the issue of [paternity] parentage by discovery conducted under the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure. Unless otherwise specifically provided by statute, the proceedings shall be conducted under the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure.

(9) When, in accordance with subsection (6)(a)(A) of this section, a party objects to the entry of an order and the [blood tests conducted under ORS 109.250 to 109.262 result in a cumulative paternity index] genetic testing conducted under sections 39 to 51 of this 2025 Act result in a combined relationship index of 99 or greater, notwithstanding the party's objection, evidence of the tests, together with the testimony of a parent, is a sufficient basis upon which to presume

[paternity] parentage for purposes of establishing temporary support under this section. The court shall, upon motion of any party, enter a temporary order requiring the [alleged father] alleged genetic parent to provide support pending the [determination] adjudication of parentage by the court. In determining the amount of support, the court shall use the formula established under ORS 25.275.

SECTION 96. ORS 25.552 is amended to read:

25.552. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, when a response denying [paternity] parentage and requesting a hearing is received pursuant to ORS 25.511 (3), or [paternity] parentage is a valid issue as determined by the administrator under ORS 25.550, the certification to the circuit court shall be to the court in the judicial district [where the parent or dependent child resides.]:

(a) Where the child resides or is located;

(b) If the child does not reside in this state, where the alleged genetic parent resides or is located; or

(c) If the parent who gave birth to the child or the child's alleged genetic parent is deceased, where the estate of the deceased individual is being administered.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if there is an Oregon juvenile court case regarding the dependent child, the matter may be certified to the county that has jurisdiction of the juvenile court case.

(3) The certification shall include true copies of the notice and finding of financial responsibility, the return of service, the denial of [paternity] parentage and request for hearing and any other relevant papers.

(4) The court shall set the matter for trial and notify the parties of the time and place of trial.

(5) If [paternity] parentage is established, the monthly support and the amount of past support to be ordered may be established under ORS 25.513.

[(3)] (2) No later than one year after a voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage is filed in this state and if [blood tests have] genetic testing has not been completed, a party to the acknowledgment, or the Department of Human Services if the child named in the acknowledgment is in the care and custody of the department under ORS chapter 419B, may apply to the administrator for services under ORS 25.080 and for an order for [blood tests] genetic testing.

[(4)] (3) Upon receipt of a timely application, the administrator shall order:

(a) The [mother and the male party to submit to blood tests] parent who gave birth to the child and the individual whose parentage is being determined to submit to genetic testing; and

[(5)] (4) If a party refuses to comply with an order under subsection [(4)] (3) of this section, the issue of [paternity] parentage shall, upon the motion of the administrator, be resolved against that party by an order of the court either affirming or setting aside:

(a) The order establishing [paternity or] parentage; or

(b) The voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage.

[(6)] (5) If the results of the [blood tests] genetic testing exclude [the male party as the biological father] as the genetic parent of the child the individual whose parentage is to be determined, the administrator may file a motion with the court:

(a) For an order setting aside:

(A) The order establishing [paternity or] parentage; or

(B) The voluntary acknowledgment of [paternity] parentage; and

Upon receipt of the judgment, the state registrar shall correct any records maintained by the state registrar that indicate that the [male party] individual is the parent of the child.

[(9)] (8) The Child Support Program shall pay any state registrar fees and any costs for [blood tests] genetic testing ordered under this section, subject to recovery from the party who requested the tests.

(9) The administrator may not reopen the issue of parentage and order genetic testing under this section if the voluntary acknowledgment of parentage established parentage as provided in ORS 109.070 (1)(a)(B), the parties to the acknowledgment are married at the time of the application and the application is made by the Department of Human Services, unless both parties to the acknowledgment consent to the application.

SECTION 98. ORS 25.554, as amended by section 97 of this 2025 Act, is amended to read:

Upon receipt of the judgment, the state registrar shall correct any records maintained by the state registrar that indicate that the individual is the parent of the child.

(8) The Child Support Program shall pay any state registrar fees and any costs for genetic testing ordered under this section, subject to recovery from the party who requested the tests.

In applying and construing sections 39 to 51, 55 to 62, 63 to 74 and 84 to 88 of this 2025 Act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact the uniform parentage act.

SECTION 105. UPA 1002. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act. Sections 39 to 51, 55 to 62, 63 to 74 and 84 to 88 of this 2025 Act modify, limit and supersede the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. 7001, et seq, but do not modify, limit or supersede 15 U.S.C. 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any notice described in 15 U.S.C. 7003(b).

SECTION 106. ORS 3.260 is amended to read:

3.260. (1) The circuit courts and the judges thereof shall exercise all juvenile court jurisdiction, authority, powers, functions and duties.

(2) Pursuant to ORS 3.275, in addition to any other jurisdiction vested in it by law, the circuit court shall exercise exclusive and original judicial jurisdiction, authority, powers, functions, and duties in the judicial district in any or all of the following matters that on the date specified in the order entered under ORS 3.275 are not within the jurisdiction of the circuit court:

(a) Adoption.

(b) Change of name under ORS 33.410.

(c) [Filiation.] Adjudications of parentage.

(d) Commitment of persons with mental illness or mental retardation.

(e) Any suit or civil proceeding involving custody or other disposition of a child or the support thereof or the support of a spouse, including enforcement of the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act and enforcement of out-of-state or foreign judgments and decrees on domestic relations.

(f) Waivers of the three-day waiting period before a marriage license becomes effective under ORS 106.077.

(g) Issuance of delayed reports of live birth.

SECTION 107. ORS 419B.806 is amended to read:

419B.806. (1) As used in this section, "consolidated" means that actions are heard before one judge of the circuit court to determine issues regarding a child or ward.

(2) In any action filed in the juvenile court in which the legal or physical custody of a child or ward is at issue and there is also a child custody, parenting time, visitation, restraining order, [filiation] adjudication of parentage or Family Abuse Prevention Act action involving the child or ward in a domestic relations, [filiation] adjudication of parentage or guardianship proceeding, the matters shall be consolidated. Actions must be consolidated under this subsection regardless of whether the actions to be consolidated were filed or initiated before or after the filing of the petition under ORS 419B.100.

(3) Consolidation does not merge the procedural or substantive law of the individual actions. Parties to the individual consolidated actions do not have standing, solely by virtue of the consolidation, in every action subject to the order of consolidation. Parties must comply with provisions for intervention or participation in a particular action under the provisions of law applicable to that action.

(4) Upon entry of an order of consolidation, all pending issues pertaining to the actions subject to the order shall be heard together in juvenile court. The court shall hear the juvenile matters first unless the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child or ward to proceed otherwise.

(5) A judge shall make and modify orders and findings in actions subject to the order of consolidation upon the filing of proper motions and notice as provided by law applicable to the actions. Any findings, orders or modifications must be consistent with the juvenile court orders, and persons who were parties to the juvenile court action may not relitigate issues in consolidated actions.

(6) The judge shall set out separately from orders entered under this chapter or ORS chapter 419C any orders or judgments made in other actions subject to the consolidation order. The trial court administrator shall file the orders and judgments in the appropriate actions subject to the consolidation order. An order or judgment in an individual juvenile court action is final if it finally disposes of the rights and duties of the parties to that action, without reference to whether the order or judgment disposes of the rights and duties of the parties to another action with which the action has been consolidated.

(7)(a) When the actions described in subsection (2) of this section exist in two or more circuit courts, the judges assigned to the actions shall confer to determine the appropriate court in which to consolidate and hear the actions. The judges shall confer not later than 10 judicial days after a court has received notice of the existence of an action in another circuit court.

(b) If the judges agree on the circuit court in which the actions should be consolidated, the judges shall take such action as is necessary to consolidate the actions in the circuit court.

(c) If the judges do not agree on the circuit court in which the actions should be consolidated, the actions must be consolidated in the court in which the juvenile action is filed or, if more than one juvenile action is pending, in the court in which the first juvenile action was filed.

(8) Nothing in this section requires the consolidation of any administrative proceeding under ORS 25.501 to 25.556 or ORS chapter 25 with a juvenile court or other action.

SECTION 108. ORS 419B.819 is amended to read:

419B.819. (1) A court may make an order establishing permanent guardianship under ORS 419B.365 or terminating parental rights under ORS 419B.500, 419B.502, 419B.504, 419B.506 or 419B.508 only after service of summons and a true copy of the petition on the parent, as provided in ORS 419B.812, 419B.823, 419B.824, 419B.827, 419B.830 and 419B.833. [A putative father] An alleged genetic parent who satisfies the criteria set out in ORS 419B.839 (1)(d) or 419B.875 (1)(a)(C) also must be served with summons and a true copy of the petition, unless a court of competent jurisdiction has found [him] the alleged genetic parent not to be the child or ward's legal or [biological father] genetic parent or [he] the alleged genetic parent has filed a petition for [filiation] adjudication of parentage that was dismissed and no appeal of the judgment or order is pending.

(2) A summons under this section must require one of the following:

(a) That the parent appear personally before the court at the time and place specified in the summons for a hearing on the allegations of the petition;

(b) That the parent appear personally before the court at the time and place specified in the summons to admit or deny the allegations of the petition; or

(c) That the parent file a written answer to the petition within 30 days from the date on which the parent is served with the summons.

(3) If the court does not direct the type of response to be required by the summons under subsection (2) of this section, the summons shall require the parent to respond in the manner authorized by subsection (2)(c) of this section.

(4) A summons under this section must contain:

(a) A statement that the rights of the parent are proposed to be terminated or, if the petition seeks to establish a permanent guardianship, that a permanent guardianship is proposed to be established.

(b) A statement that, if the parent fails to appear at the time and place specified in the summons or in an order under ORS 419B.820 or, if the summons requires the filing of a written answer, fails to file the answer within the time provided, the court may, without further notice and in the parent's absence, terminate the parent's rights or grant the guardianship petition, either on the date specified in the summons or order or on a future date, and may take any other action that is authorized by law.

(c) A notice that the parent has the right to be represented by an attorney. The notice must be in substantially the following form:

You have a right to be represented by an attorney. If you wish to be represented by an attorney, please retain one as soon as possible to represent you in this proceeding. If you cannot afford to hire an attorney and you meet the state's financial guidelines, you are entitled to have an attorney appointed for you at state expense. To request appointment of an attorney to represent you at state expense, you must contact the juvenile court immediately. Phone _____ for further information.

(d) A statement that, if the parent is represented by an attorney, the parent has the responsibility to maintain contact with the parent's attorney and to keep the attorney advised of the parent's whereabouts.

(e) A statement that, if the parent is represented by an attorney, the parent must appear personally at any hearing where the parent is required to appear. The statement must explain that "appear personally" does not include appearance through the parent's attorney.

(f) A statement that, if the court has granted the parent an exception in advance under ORS 419B.918, the parent may appear in any manner permitted by the court under ORS 419B.918.

(5) If the summons requires the parent to appear before the court to admit or deny the allegations of the petition or requires the parent to file a written answer to the petition, the summons must advise the parent that, if the parent contests the petition, the court:

(a) Will schedule a hearing on the allegations of the petition and order the parent to appear personally; and

(b) May schedule other hearings related to the petition and order the parent to appear personally.

(6) At a hearing, when the parent is required to appear personally, or in the parent's written answer to the petition, the parent shall inform the court and the petitioner of the parent's current residence address, mailing address and telephone number.

(7) If a parent fails to appear for any hearing related to the petition, or fails to file a written answer, as directed by summons or court order under this section or ORS 419B.820, the court, without further notice and in the parent's absence, may:

(a) Terminate the parent's rights or, if the petition seeks to establish a permanent guardianship, grant the guardianship petition either on the date specified in the summons or order or on a future date; and

(b) Take any other action that is authorized by law.

(9) If a guardian ad litem has been appointed for a parent under ORS 419B.231, a copy of the summons served on the parent under this section must be provided to the guardian ad litem.

CONFORMING AMENDMENTS

SECTION 109. ORS 18.052 is amended to read:

18.052. (1) A judge rendering a judgment shall file with the court administrator a judgment document that incorporates the judgment. The judge must sign the judgment document unless the court administrator is authorized by law to sign the judgment document. Before signing a judgment document, the judge shall ensure that all requirements imposed by law for entry of the judgment have been fulfilled, including the making of any written findings of fact or conclusions of law. If a proposed judgment document submitted under ORS 18.035 does not comply with the requirements of ORS 18.038, 18.042 and 18.048, the judge may not sign the judgment document. If a proposed judgment document submitted under ORS 18.035 establishes [paternity] parentage or includes a provision concerning support, but does not comply with the requirements of ORS 25.020 (8), the judge may not sign the judgment document. Unless the judgment is exempt under ORS 18.038 (2), the judge shall ensure that the title of the judgment document indicates whether the judgment is a limited judgment, general judgment or supplemental judgment. If the judgment is a limited judgment rendered under the provisions of ORCP 67 B, the judge must determine that there is no just reason for delay, but the judgment document need not reflect that determination if the title of the judgment document indicates that the judgment is a limited judgment.

(2) A court administrator who signs a judgment under authority granted by law has the same duties as a judge under the provisions of this section.

(3) This section does not apply to justice courts, municipal courts or county courts performing judicial functions.

SECTION 110. ORS 21.155 is amended to read:

21.155. A circuit court shall collect a filing fee of $301 when a complaint or other document is filed for the purpose of commencing one of the following proceedings and when an answer or other first appearance is filed in the proceeding:

(1) Proceedings for dissolution of marriage, annulment of marriage or separation.

(2) [Filiation] Proceedings to adjudicate parentage under ORS 109.124 to 109.230.

(3) Proceedings under ORS 108.110, 109.100 and 109.103.

SECTION 111. ORS 37.220 is amended to read:

37.220. (1) Except as otherwise ordered by the court, the entry of an order appointing a receiver operates as a stay, applicable to all persons, of:

(a) The commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative or other action or proceeding against the owner that was or could have been commenced before the entry of the order of appointment, or to recover a claim against the owner that arose before the entry of the order of appointment;

(b) The enforcement, against the owner or any estate property, of a judgment entered before the entry of the order of appointment;

(c) Any act to obtain possession of estate property from the receiver, or to interfere with, or exercise control over, estate property;

(d) Any act to create, perfect or enforce any lien or claim against estate property, to the extent that the lien secures a claim against the owner that arose before the entry of the order of appointment;

(e) Any act to collect, assess or recover a claim against the owner that arose before the entry of the order of appointment; or

(f) The exercise of a right of setoff against the owner.

(2) The stay automatically expires as to the acts specified in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (e) of this section six months after the entry of the order of appointment, unless the stay is extended by court order.

(3) A person whose action or proceeding is stayed may move the court for relief from the stay, and the court shall grant such relief for good cause shown. A motion for relief from stay under this subsection is deemed granted if the court does not act on the motion within 60 days after the motion is filed. A person may move the court ex parte for an expedited hearing on a motion for relief from stay.

(4) Any judgment obtained against the owner or estate property after entry of the order of appointment is not a lien against estate property unless the receivership is terminated before a conveyance of the property against which the judgment would otherwise constitute a lien.

(5) The entry of an order appointing a receiver does not operate as a stay of:

(a) The continuation of a judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure action that was initiated by the party seeking the receiver's appointment, unless otherwise ordered by the court;

(b) The commencement or continuation of a criminal action against the owner;

(c) The commencement or continuation of an action or proceeding to establish [paternity] parentage, to establish or modify an order for spousal or child support or to collect spousal or child support under any order of a court;

(d) Any act to perfect, or to maintain or continue the perfection of, an interest in estate property if the interest perfected would be effective against a creditor of the owner holding at the time of the entry of the order of appointment either a perfected nonpurchase money security interest under ORS chapter 79 against the property, or a lien by attachment, levy or the like, including liens under ORS chapter 87, whether or not such a creditor exists, except that if perfection of an interest would require seizure of the property involved or the commencement of an action, the perfection may and must instead be accomplished by filing and serving on the receiver notice of the interest within the time fixed by law for seizure or commencement;

(e) The commencement or continuation of an action or proceeding by a governmental unit to enforce its police or regulatory power;

(f) The enforcement of a judgment, other than a money judgment, obtained in an action or proceeding by a governmental unit to enforce its police or regulatory power, or with respect to any licensure of the owner; or

(g) The establishment by a governmental unit of any tax liability and any appeal thereof.

(6) The court may void an act that violates the stay imposed by this section.

(7) If a person knowingly violates the stay imposed by this section, the court may:

(a) Award actual damages caused by the violation, reasonable attorney fees and costs; and

(b) Sanction the violation as civil contempt.

(8) The stay described in this section expires upon the termination of the receivership.

SECTION 112. ORS 107.105 is amended to read:

107.105. (1) Whenever the court renders a judgment of marital annulment, dissolution or separation, the court may provide in the judgment:

(a) For the future care and custody, by one party or jointly, of all minor children of the parties born, adopted or conceived during the marriage and for minor children born to the parties prior to the marriage, as the court may deem just and proper under ORS 107.137. The court may hold a hearing to decide the custody issue prior to any other issues. When appropriate, the court shall recognize the value of close contact with both parents and encourage joint parental custody and joint responsibility for the welfare of the children.

(b) For parenting time rights of the parent not having custody of such children and for visitation rights pursuant to a petition filed under ORS 109.119. When a parenting plan has been developed as required by ORS 107.102, the court shall review the parenting plan and, if approved, incorporate the parenting plan into the court's final order. When incorporated into a final order, the parenting plan is determinative of parenting time rights. If the parents have been unable to develop a parenting plan or if either of the parents requests the court to develop a detailed parenting plan, the court shall develop the parenting plan in the best interest of the child, ensuring the noncustodial parent sufficient access to the child to provide for appropriate quality parenting time and ensuring the safety of the parties, if implicated. The court shall deny parenting time to a parent under this paragraph if the court finds that the parent has been convicted of rape under ORS 163.355, 163.365 or 163.375 or other comparable law of another jurisdiction and the rape resulted in the conception of the child. Otherwise, the court may deny parenting time to the noncustodial parent under this subsection only if the court finds that parenting time would endanger the health or safety of the child. In the case of a noncustodial parent who has a disability as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.), the court may consider the noncustodial parent's disability in determining parenting time only if the court finds that behaviors or limitations related to the noncustodial parent's disability are endangering or will likely endanger the health, safety or welfare of the child. The court shall recognize the value of close contact with both parents and encourage, when practicable, joint responsibility for the welfare of such children and extensive contact between the minor children of the divided marriage and the parties. If the court awards parenting time to a noncustodial parent who has committed abuse, other than being convicted for rape as described in this paragraph, the court shall make adequate provision for the safety of the child and the other parent in accordance with the provisions of ORS 107.718 (6).

(c) For the support of the children of the marriage by the parties. In ordering child support, the formula established under ORS 25.275 shall apply. The court may at any time require an accounting from the custodial parent with reference to the use of the money received as child support. The court is not required to order support for any minor child who has become self-supporting, emancipated or married or for any child who has ceased to attend school after becoming 18 years of age. A general judgment entered under this section may include an amount for support as requested in a petition filed under ORS 107.085 or under a motion for relief made pursuant to ORS 107.095 (1)(b) for which a limited judgment was not entered, payment of which commences no earlier than the date the petition or motion was served on the nonrequesting party, and the amount shall be considered a request for relief that has been decided by the general judgment for purposes of ORS 18.082 (3).

(d) For spousal support, an amount of money for a period of time as may be just and equitable for one party to contribute to the other, in gross or in installments or both. Unless otherwise expressly provided in the judgment and except for any unpaid balance of previously ordered spousal support, liability for the payment of spousal support shall terminate on the death of either party, and there shall be no liability for either the payment of spousal support or for any payment in cash or property as a substitute for the payment of spousal support after the death of either party. The court may approve an agreement for the entry of an order for the support of a party. A general judgment entered under this section may include an amount for support as requested in a petition filed under ORS 107.085 or under a motion for relief made pursuant to ORS 107.095 (1)(b) for which a limited judgment was not entered, payment of which commences no earlier than the date the petition or motion was served on the nonrequesting party, and the amount shall be considered a request for relief that has been decided by the general judgment for purposes of ORS 18.082 (3). In making the spousal support order, the court shall designate one or more categories of spousal support and shall make findings of the relevant factors in the decision. The court may order:

(A) Transitional spousal support as needed for a party to attain education and training necessary to allow the party to prepare for reentry into the job market or for advancement therein. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding transitional spousal support include but are not limited to:

(i) The duration of the marriage;

(ii) A party's training and employment skills;

(iii) A party's work experience;

(iv) The financial needs and resources of each party;

(v) The tax consequences to each party;

(vi) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and

(vii) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

(B) Compensatory spousal support when there has been a significant financial or other contribution by one party to the education, training, vocational skills, career or earning capacity of the other party and when an order for compensatory spousal support is otherwise just and equitable in all of the circumstances. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding compensatory spousal support include but are not limited to:

(i) The amount, duration and nature of the contribution;

(ii) The duration of the marriage;

(iii) The relative earning capacity of the parties;

(iv) The extent to which the marital estate has already benefited from the contribution;

(v) The tax consequences to each party; and

(vi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

(C) Spousal maintenance as a contribution by one spouse to the support of the other for either a specified or an indefinite period. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding spousal maintenance include but are not limited to:

(i) The duration of the marriage;

(ii) The age of the parties;

(iii) The health of the parties, including their physical, mental and emotional condition;

(iv) The standard of living established during the marriage;

(v) The relative income and earning capacity of the parties, recognizing that the wage earner's continuing income may be a basis for support distinct from the income that the supported spouse may receive from the distribution of marital property;

(vi) A party's training and employment skills;

(vii) A party's work experience;

(viii) The financial needs and resources of each party;

(ix) The tax consequences to each party;

(x) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and

(xi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

(e) For the delivery to one party of such party's personal property in the possession or control of the other at the time of the giving of the judgment.

(f) For the division or other disposition between the parties of the real or personal property, or both, of either or both of the parties as may be just and proper in all the circumstances. In determining the division of property under this paragraph, the following apply:

(A) A retirement plan or pension or an interest therein shall be considered as property.

(B) The court shall consider the contribution of a party as a homemaker as a contribution to the acquisition of marital assets.

(C) Except as provided in subparagraph (D) of this paragraph, there is a rebuttable presumption that both parties have contributed equally to the acquisition of property during the marriage, whether such property is jointly or separately held.

(D)(i) Property acquired by gift to one party during the marriage and separately held by that party on a continuing basis from the time of receipt is not subject to a presumption of equal contribution under subparagraph (C) of this paragraph.

(ii) For purposes of this subparagraph, "property acquired by gift" means property acquired by one party through gift, devise, bequest, operation of law, beneficiary designation or inheritance.

(E) Subsequent to the filing of a petition for annulment or dissolution of marriage or separation, the rights of the parties in the marital assets shall be considered a species of co-ownership, and a transfer of marital assets under a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of separation entered on or after October 4, 1977, shall be considered a partitioning of jointly owned property.

(F) The court shall require full disclosure of all assets by the parties in arriving at a just property division.

(G) In arriving at a just and proper division of property, the court shall consider reasonable costs of sale of assets, taxes and any other costs reasonably anticipated by the parties.

(H)(i) If a party has been awarded spousal support in lieu of a share of property, the court shall so state on the record and shall order the obligor to provide for and maintain life insurance in an amount commensurate with the obligation and designating the obligee as beneficiary for the duration of the obligation.

(ii) The obligee or attorney of the obligee shall cause a certified copy of the judgment to be delivered to the life insurance company or companies.

(iii) If the obligee or the attorney of the obligee delivers a true copy of the judgment to the life insurance company or companies, identifying the policies involved and requesting such notification under this section, the company or companies shall notify the obligee, as beneficiary of the insurance policy, whenever the policyholder takes any action that will change the beneficiary or reduce the benefits of the policy. Either party may request notification by the insurer when premium payments have not been made. If the obligor is ordered to provide for and maintain life insurance, the obligor shall provide to the obligee a true copy of the policy. The obligor shall also provide to the obligee written notice of any action that will reduce the benefits or change the designation of the beneficiaries under the policy.

(g) For the creation of trusts as follows:

(A) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, control and manage for the benefit of the children of the parties, of the marriage or otherwise such of the real or personal property of either or both of the parties, as the court may order to be allocated or appropriated to their support and welfare, and to collect, receive, expend, manage or invest any sum of money awarded for the support and welfare of minor children of the parties.

(B) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, manage and control such amount of money or such real or personal property of either or both of the parties, as may be set aside, allocated or appropriated for the support of a party.

(C) For the establishment of the terms of the trust and provisions for the disposition or distribution of such money or property to or between the parties, their successors, heirs and assigns after the purpose of the trust has been accomplished. Upon petition of a party or a person having an interest in the trust showing a change of circumstances warranting a change in the terms of the trust, the court may make and direct reasonable modifications in its terms.

(h) To change the name of either spouse to a name the spouse held before the marriage. The court shall order a change if it is requested by the affected party.

(i) For a money award for any sums of money found to be then remaining unpaid upon any order or limited judgment entered under ORS 107.095. If a limited judgment was entered under ORS 107.095, the limited judgment shall continue to be enforceable for any amounts not paid under the limited judgment unless those amounts are included in the money award made by the general judgment.

(j) For an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the action in favor of a party or in favor of a party's attorney.

(2) In determining the proper amount of support and the proper division of property under subsection (1)(c), (d) and (f) of this section, the court may consider evidence of the tax consequences on the parties of its proposed judgment.

(3) Upon the filing of the judgment, the property division ordered shall be deemed effective for all purposes. This transfer by judgment, which shall affect solely owned property transferred to the other spouse as well as commonly owned property in the same manner as would a declaration of a resulting trust in favor of the spouse to whom the property is awarded, is not a taxable sale or exchange.

(4) If an appeal is taken from a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of separation or from any part of a judgment rendered in pursuance of the provisions of ORS 107.005 to 107.086, 107.095, 107.105, 107.115 to 107.174, 107.405, 107.425, 107.445 to 107.520, 107.540 and 107.610, the court rendering the judgment may provide in a supplemental judgment for any relief provided for in ORS 107.095 and shall provide that the relief granted in the judgment is to be in effect only during the pendency of the appeal. A supplemental judgment under this subsection may be enforced as provided in ORS 33.015 to 33.155 and ORS chapter 18. A supplemental judgment under this subsection may be appealed in the same manner as provided for supplemental judgments modifying a domestic relations judgment under ORS 19.275.

(5) If an appeal is taken from the judgment or other appealable order in a suit for annulment or dissolution of a marriage or for separation and the appellate court awards costs and disbursements to a party, the court may also award to that party, as part of the costs, such additional sum of money as it may adjudge reasonable as an attorney fee on the appeal.

(6) If, as a result of a suit for the annulment or dissolution of a marriage or for separation, the parties to such suit become owners of an undivided interest in any real or personal property, or both, either party may maintain supplemental proceedings by filing a petition in such suit for the partition of such real or personal property, or both, within two years from the entry of the judgment, showing among other things that the original parties to the judgment and their joint or several creditors having a lien upon any such real or personal property, if any there be, constitute the sole and only necessary parties to such supplemental proceedings. The procedure in the supplemental proceedings, so far as applicable, shall be the procedure provided in ORS 105.405 for the partition of real property, and the court granting the judgment shall have in the first instance and retain jurisdiction in equity therefor.

SECTION 113. ORS 107.106 is amended to read:

107.106. (1) An order or judgment providing for the custody, parenting time, visitation or support of a child under ORS chapter 25, 107, 108, 109 or 110 or ORS 419B.400 shall include:

(a) Provisions addressing the issues of:

(A) Payment of uninsured medical expenses of the child;

(B) Maintenance of insurance or other security for support; and

(C) Medical support for the child under ORS 25.321 to 25.343.

(b) A statement in substantially the following form:

The terms of child support and parenting time (visitation) are designed for the child's benefit and not the parents' benefit. You must pay support even if you are not receiving visitation. You must comply with visitation orders even if you are not receiving child support.

Violation of child support orders and visitation orders is punishable by fine, imprisonment or other penalties.

Publicly funded help is available to establish, enforce and modify child support orders. [Paternity] Parentage establishment services are also available. Contact your local district attorney or the Department of Justice at (503) 373-7300 for information.

Publicly funded help may be available to establish, enforce and modify visitation orders. Forms are available to enforce visitation orders. Contact the domestic relations court clerk or civil court clerk for information.

(2) The court or administrative law judge shall ensure the creation and filing of an order or judgment that complies with this section.

(3) This section does not apply to an action undertaken by the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice or a district attorney under ORS 25.080.

SECTION 114. ORS 107.137 is amended to read:

107.137. (1) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, in determining custody of a minor child under ORS 107.105 or 107.135, the court shall give primary consideration to the best interests and welfare of the child. In determining the best interests and welfare of the child, the court shall consider the following relevant factors:

(a) The emotional ties between the child and other family members;

(b) The interest of the parties in and attitude toward the child;

(c) The desirability of continuing an existing relationship;

(d) The abuse of one parent by the other;

(e) The preference for the primary caregiver of the child, if the caregiver is deemed fit by the court; and

(f) The willingness and ability of each parent to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing relationship between the other parent and the child. However, the court may not consider such willingness and ability if one parent shows that the other parent has sexually assaulted or engaged in a pattern of behavior of abuse against the parent or a child and that a continuing relationship with the other parent will endanger the health or safety of either parent or the child.

(2) The best interests and welfare of the child in a custody matter [shall] may not be determined by isolating any one of the relevant factors referred to in subsection (1) of this section, or any other relevant factor, and relying on it to the exclusion of other factors. However, if a parent has committed abuse as defined in ORS 107.705, other than as described in subsection (6) of this section, there is a rebuttable presumption that it is not in the best interests and welfare of the child to award sole or joint custody of the child to the parent who committed the abuse.

(3) If a party has a disability as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.), the court may not consider that party's disability in determining custody unless the court finds that behaviors or limitations of the party that are related to the party's disability are endangering or will likely endanger the health, safety or welfare of the child.

(4) In determining custody of a minor child under ORS 107.105 or 107.135, the court shall consider the conduct, marital status, income, social environment or lifestyle of either party only if it is shown that any of these factors are causing or may cause emotional or physical damage to the child.

(5) No preference in custody [shall] may be given to [the mother over the father for the sole reason that she is the mother, nor shall any preference be given to the father over the mother for the sole reason that he is the father] one parent over the other based solely on the gender of the parent.

(6)(a) The court determining custody of a minor child under ORS 107.105 or 107.135 [shall] may not award sole or joint custody of the child to a parent if:

(A) The court finds that the parent has been convicted of rape under ORS 163.355, 163.365 or 163.375 or other comparable law of another jurisdiction; and

(B) The rape resulted in the conception of the child.

(b) A denial of custody under this subsection does not relieve the parent of any obligation to pay child support.

SECTION 115. ORS 107.179 is amended to read:

107.179. (1) When either party to a child custody issue, other than one involving temporary custody, whether the issue arises from a case of marital annulment, dissolution or separation, or from [a determination] an adjudication of parentage, requests the court to grant joint custody of the minor children of the parties under ORS 107.105, the court, if the other party objects to the request for joint custody, shall proceed under this section. The request under this subsection must be made, in the petition or the response, or otherwise not less than 30 days before the date of trial in the case, except for good cause shown. The court in such circumstances, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, shall direct the parties to participate in mediation in an effort to resolve their differences concerning custody. The court may order such participation in mediation within a mediation program established by the court or as conducted by any mediator approved by the court. Unless the court or the county provides a mediation service available to the parties, the court may order that the costs of the mediation be paid by one or both of the parties, as the court finds equitable upon consideration of the relative ability of the parties to pay those costs. If, after 90 days, the parties do not arrive at a resolution of their differences, the court shall proceed to determine custody.

(2) At its discretion, the court may:

(a) Order mediation under this section prior to trial and postpone trial of the case pending the outcome of the mediation, in which case the issue of custody shall be tried only upon failure to resolve the issue of custody by mediation;

(b) Order mediation under this section prior to trial and proceed to try the case as to issues other than custody while the parties are at the same time engaged in the mediation, in which case the issue of custody shall be tried separately upon failure to resolve the issue of custody by mediation; or

(c) Complete the trial of the case on all issues and order mediation under this section upon the conclusion of the trial, postponing entry of the judgment pending outcome of the mediation, in which case the court may enter a limited judgment as to issues other than custody upon completion of the trial or may postpone entry of any judgment until the expiration of the mediation period or agreement of the parties as to custody.

(3) If either party objects to mediation on the grounds that to participate in mediation would subject the party to severe emotional distress and moves the court to waive mediation, the court shall hold a hearing on the motion. If the court finds it likely that participation in mediation will subject the party to severe emotional distress, the court may waive the requirement of mediation.

(4) Communications made by or to a mediator or between parties as a part of mediation ordered under this section are privileged and are not admissible as evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding.

SECTION 116. ORS 107.710 is amended to read:

107.710. (1) Any person who has been the victim of abuse within the preceding 180 days may petition the circuit court for relief under ORS 107.700 to 107.735, if the person is in imminent danger of further abuse from the abuser. (D) It appears that no court of another state would have jurisdiction under circumstances substantially in accordance with subparagraphs (A) to (C) of this paragraph; or

(E) A court of another state has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the grounds that this state is a more appropriate forum to hear a petition for adoption of the minor child and it is in the best interests of the minor child that a court of this state assume jurisdiction.

(b) As used in paragraph (a) of this subsection, "periods of temporary absence" means periods of absence of not more than a total of 30 days in the prior six consecutive months.

(5) In a petition to adopt a minor child, venue lies in the Oregon county with which the child has the most significant connection or in the Oregon county in which the licensed adoption agency is located.

The department may designate an Oregon licensed adoption agency to investigate and report to the court. If the department designates an Oregon licensed adoption agency to investigate and report to the court, the department shall make the designation and provide all necessary information and materials to the Oregon licensed adoption agency no later than 30 days after the service on the director and upon receipt of all required documentation and fees.

(B) Except when the court finds that there is reason to know that the child is an Indian child, the department:

(d) The court shall file and retain the placement report filed under this subsection in the same location in the records, papers and files in the court's record of the adoption case as the petition and exhibits filed under ORS 109.285 are located. The placement report must be segregated from the Adoption Summary and Segregated Information Statement and the exhibits submitted under ORS 109.287.

(e) The department shall, subject to ORS 109.270, adopt rules to implement the provisions of this subsection.

(9) The department may charge the petitioner a fee for investigating a proposed nonagency adoption and preparing the home study required under subsection (7) of this section and the placement report required under subsection (8) of this section. The petitioner shall report the fee amount to the court. The court granting the adoption shall make a finding as to whether the fee is necessary and reasonable. Any fee charged may not exceed reasonable costs for investigation, home study and placement report preparation. The department shall prescribe by rule the procedure for computing the investigation, home study and placement report preparation fee. The rules shall provide a waiver of either part or all of the fee based upon the petitioner's ability to pay.

(10) The court may not rule upon a petition for the adoption of a minor child until at least 90 days after the date that the petition and documents required to be served on the Director of Human Services under ORS 109.285 and 109.287 have been served upon the director. The department may waive the 90-day waiting period.

(11) The amounts of any fees collected under subsection (9) of this section are continuously appropriated to the department for use in preparing home studies and placement reports required under this section.

(12)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, a court may not grant a judgment for the adoption of a minor child unless the petitioner has filed with the court:

(b) Except when the court finds that there is reason to know that the child is an Indian child, a person is not required to file a home study or a placement report with the court when the department has granted the person a waiver under department rules.

(13) When the court conducts a hearing under ORS 109.266 to 109.410 regarding the adoption of a minor child, the court shall make the inquiries described in ORS 419B.636 (4)(b) and make a finding and order subject to the procedures under ORS 419B.636 (4) regarding whether there is reason to know that the child is an Indian child.

109.430. It is the policy of this state that adoption is based upon the legal termination of parental rights and responsibilities of birth parents and the creation of the legal relationship of parents and child between an adoptee and the adoptive parents. These legal and social premises underlying adoption must be maintained. The state recognizes that some persons who were adopted as children have a strong desire to obtain identifying information about their birth parents, [putative father] alleged genetic parent or genetic siblings while other such adoptees have no such desire. The state further recognizes that some birth parents have a strong desire to obtain identifying information about their [biological] genetic children who were adopted, while other birth parents have no such desire. The state fully recognizes the right to privacy and confidentiality of birth parents whose children were adopted, the adoptees and the adoptive parents. The purpose of ORS 109.425 to 109.507 and 432.250 is to:

(1) Set up a voluntary adoption registry where birth parents, [putative fathers] alleged genetic parents, adoptees and genetic siblings of adoptees may register their willingness to the release of identifying information to each other;

(2) Provide for the disclosure of identifying information to birth parents and their progeny through a person employed or approved by a licensed adoption agency or the Department of Human Services, if the relevant persons for such disclosure are registered;

(3) Provide for the transmission of nonidentifying health and genetic and social histories of adoptees, birth parents, [putative fathers] alleged genetic parents, genetic siblings of adoptees and other specified persons; and

(4) Provide for disclosure of specific identifying information to Indian tribes or governmental agencies when needed to establish the adoptee's eligibility for tribal membership or for benefits or to a person responsible for settling an estate that refers to the adoptee.

SECTION 130. ORS 109.455 is amended to read:

109.455. (1) Only a birth parent, adult adoptee, adult genetic sibling of an adoptee, parent or guardian of a minor adoptee or of a minor genetic sibling of an adoptee, adoptive parent of a deceased adoptee and parents or adult siblings of a deceased birth parent may use the registry for obtaining identifying information about birth parents, [putative fathers] alleged genetic parents, adoptees and genetic siblings of adoptees.

(2) [A putative father] An alleged genetic parent may not use the registry to obtain identifying information but may register to authorize release of identifying information under ORS 109.460.

SECTION 131. ORS 109.460 is amended to read:

109.460. (1) An adult adoptee, a birth parent, [a putative father] an alleged genetic parent, an adult genetic sibling of an adoptee, a parent or guardian of a minor adoptee or of a minor genetic sibling of an adoptee, an adoptive parent of a deceased adoptee and a parent or adult sibling of a deceased birth parent may register with a registry by submitting a signed affidavit to the appropriate registry. The affidavit shall contain the information listed in ORS 109.465 and a statement of the registrant's willingness to be identified to the other relevant persons who register. The affidavit gives authority to the registry to release to the other relevant persons who register identifying information related to the registrant or, if the registrant is registering on behalf of a minor adoptee or a minor genetic sibling, identifying information related to the minor adoptee or sibling. Each registration shall be accompanied by the registrant's, or if the registrant is registering on behalf of a minor adoptee or a minor genetic sibling, the minor's, certified copy of the record of live birth.

(2) At the discretion of the agency operating the registry, the adult progeny, or the parent or guardian of minor progeny, of a deceased adoptee, a deceased genetic sibling of an adoptee or a deceased birth parent of an adoptee may register to have specific identifying and contact information disclosed by submitting a signed affidavit containing the information listed in ORS 109.465 and a statement of the registrant's willingness to be identified to other relevant persons who register.

(3) An adoptee, or the parent or guardian of a minor adoptee, may register to have specific identifying information disclosed to Indian tribes or to governmental agencies in order to establish the adoptee's eligibility for tribal membership or for benefits or to a person settling an estate. The information shall be limited to a true copy of documents that prove the adoptee's lineage. Information disclosed in accordance with this subsection shall not be disclosed to the adoptee or the parent or guardian of the minor adoptee by the registry or employee or agency operating a registry nor by the Indian tribe, governmental agency or person receiving the information.

(4) Registration under this section by the parent or guardian of a minor adoptee or of a minor genetic sibling of an adoptee expires when the minor reaches 18 years of age. The adoptee or sibling must reregister with a registry as an adult in accordance with this section for identifying information to be released to relevant persons who are registered. If the adoptee or sibling reregisters, the registration fee will be waived.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in ORS 109.503, a registry or employee or the agency operating a registry shall not contact or in any other way solicit any adoptee or birth parent to register with the registry.

(2) When an adoptee reaches age 18, [a putative father] an alleged genetic parent of the adoptee, if the [putative father] alleged genetic parent registered with the registry before the adoptee was age 18, shall notify the registry in writing only if the [putative father] alleged genetic parent does not desire to continue the registration.

(3) When an adoptee or genetic sibling of an adoptee reaches age 18, the adoptee or sibling, if the parent or guardian of the adoptee or sibling registered with the registry before the adoptee or sibling was age 18, must reregister with the registry as an adult in accordance with ORS 109.460. If the adoptee or sibling reregisters, the registration fee will be waived.

(4) A registry shall notify a birth parent, [putative father] alleged genetic parent or parent or guardian of a minor adoptee or of a minor genetic sibling of an adoptee of this requirement when the birth parent, [putative father] alleged genetic parent or parent or guardian initially registers.

SECTION 133. ORS 109.475 is amended to read:

109.475. (1) Upon receipt of the affidavit under ORS 109.460, the registry shall process each affidavit in an attempt to match the adoptee, the birth parent, the [putative father] alleged genetic parent, the genetic siblings, the progeny of a deceased adoptee, a deceased genetic sibling of an adoptee or a deceased birth parent of an adoptee, the adoptive parent of a deceased adoptee or the parents or adult sibling of a deceased birth parent. The processing shall include research from agency records, and if necessary from court records, to determine whether the registrants match.

(2) If the registry determines there is a match and if the relevant persons have registered with the registry and received the counseling required by ORS 109.480, notification of the match may be given by a registry to only:

(a) A birth parent of an adult adoptee;

(b) An adult adoptee;

(c) The parent or guardian of a minor adoptee or of a minor genetic sibling of an adoptee;

(g) At the discretion of the agency operating the registry, the adult progeny, or the parent or guardian of minor progeny, of a deceased adoptee, a deceased genetic sibling of an adoptee or a deceased birth parent of an adoptee for the purposes set forth in ORS 109.460 (2).

(3) Notification of a match to the relevant parties shall be made through a direct and confidential contact.

SECTION 134. ORS 109.490 is amended to read:

109.490. A registry shall release only information necessary for identifying a birth parent, [a putative father] an alleged genetic parent, an adult adoptee, an adult genetic sibling, the adult progeny, or the parent or guardian of minor progeny, of a deceased adoptee, a deceased genetic sibling of an adoptee or a deceased birth parent of an adoptee, or the county in which an adoption was finalized. A registry may not release information of any kind pertaining to:

(1) The adoptive parents, except for an adoptive parent of a minor adoptee when the adoptive parent has registered in accordance with ORS 109.460;

(2) The siblings of the adult adoptee who are children of the adoptive parents; and

(3) The income of any person.

SECTION 135. ORS 109.500 is amended to read:

SECTION 136. ORS 109.502 is amended to read:

109.502. (1)(a) An adult adoptee or the adoptive parent of a minor or deceased adoptee may request the Department of Human Services or the Oregon licensed adoption agency that facilitated the adoption to conduct a search for the adoptee's birth parents, [putative father] alleged genetic parent or, except as otherwise provided in ORS 109.504 (2), for the adoptee's genetic siblings, or for the county in which an adoption was finalized.

(b)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, a birth parent, an adult genetic sibling of an adoptee or the parent or adult sibling of a deceased birth parent may request the department or the Oregon licensed adoption agency that facilitated the adoption to conduct a search for an adult adoptee whom the birth parent relinquished for adoption.

(B) A birth parent may request a search for an adult adoptee only if the adult adoptee does not have any genetic siblings in the same adoptive family as the adult adoptee's adoptive family who are under 18 years of age.

(c) A birth parent may request and, in the discretion of the department or the Oregon licensed adoption agency that facilitated the adoption, the department or agency may conduct a search for the county in which the adoption was finalized.

(d) A person requesting a search under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection:

(A) Must be registered with a registry unless the request is only to search for the county in which an adoption was finalized; and

(B) Shall direct the request for the search to the Oregon licensed adoption agency that facilitated the adoption or, if unknown, to the department. If the Oregon licensed adoption agency that facilitated the adoption is not conducting searches or is not authorized by the department to conduct searches, the person shall direct the request to the department.

(2) The department or an agency may delegate to or contract with a third party individual or entity to conduct searches under this section.

(3) At the time of a request to conduct a search under this section, the requester shall provide the department or the Oregon licensed adoption agency that facilitated the adoption with:

(b) Payment of a fee established by rule under ORS 109.506.

SECTION 137. ORS 109.504 is amended to read:

109.504. (1) If an adult adoptee or the adoptive parent of a minor or deceased adoptee has initiated a search under ORS 109.502, the fact that the person being sought in the original search does not wish to make contact does not prevent the adult adoptee or the adoptive parent from requesting another search for a birth parent or [putative father] alleged genetic parent not previously contacted.

(2) An adult adoptee or the adoptive parent of a minor or deceased adoptee may not request a search for a minor genetic sibling of the adoptee if the parental rights of the birth parent to the minor genetic sibling have not been terminated by death or otherwise and the adoptee and the minor genetic sibling share that same birth parent.
