I'm nearly 80 years old and I must continue to work a job that requires physical exertion to be able to pay my lot rent. I've had to give up the thing that I enjoy because I can't afford my rent and outside activities. Within the next 4-5 years my rent will exceed my income as I will no longer be physically able to work as I have health issues that make it challenging to work my full-time job. I'm very concerned about what the future holds for me and the other tenants in my park.
