Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3054

This is very important to floating home owners and in part address the draconian burden placed on floating home owners when the legislature enacted their uneducated "apples and oranges" decision to throw floating homes into the same regulatory category as mobile homes. A floating home and mobile home have about as much in common as a human and a chimpanzee. And the current legislation has more in common with a chimpanzee author than a human one. Please take this first small step toward correcting your unenlightened past decision,
