

Submitter: John Moran

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

Walking off the job to protest your employers benefits is a decision that should be taken by the employee at their own risk. If you are not satisfied with your employer look elsewhere for employment that suites you better. Putting the burden on the tax payer is just simply unfair.

I firmly oppose paying strikers to walk off the job. This sends the wrong message encouraging those to rely on the tax payer to pay up for a decision they made not to work.