

Submitter: Kerry Canfield

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources and Wildfire

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: SB769

The voters of the State of Oregon voted to prohibit the hound-hunting of cougars for the entire state twice. This was thus clearly intended to be the law of the land — not subject to discussion or special interpretation or local “official disagreement.” I and a majority of Oregon voters expect this law to remain on the books and to continue to be followed and enforced in favor of the cougars.