

Submitter: Javier Sodo

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

I am opposed. Giving unemployment to those who willingly don't go to work is not what unemployment is for. This will increase our unemployment costs and lead to more workplace interruptions. Of course the unions support it because they can put their strike funds right into the pockets of the union administrators. Please reject this bill.